6-Year Program Set Up In 'Master Plan' Report

Long-Range Projects Due Under Study

11 Major Actions Proposed In Capital Improvement Plans

A six - year capital improvement program costing nearly $10 million was proposed for East Liverpool Tuesday night in the final "master plan" report presented to the City Planning Commission.

The ambitious, long - range series of projects was suggested in a 47-page study turned over to the commission at its meeting in City Hall by Daniel Zeigler II, a representative of Carroll V. Hill & Associates of Pittsburgh and Columbus, which made the "master plan" survey under contract with the municipality.

INTENDED to be implemented from 1967 through 1972, inclusive, the report proposes a series of projects ranging from a general street and sewer program to renovation of the North Side Fire Station and covering of the East End Run.

Ziegler pointed out that $7,341,500, or nearly 78 per cent of the overall cost of $9,438,000, could be covered by federal and state assistance programs of various kinds.

He said only $380,000, or 4 per cent, would come out of current city revenues. Another $619,000, or 6.5 per cent, would come from special assessments against property owners; $702,500 would be raised by general obligation bonds and $24,800 would come out of the sewer department's reserve fund.

Ziegler's study listed 11 major phases for the capital improvement program.

A $6 million extension of the present city Freeway would account for 60 per cent of the proposed overall outlay in the six years. But the study points out that 95 per cent of the cost would be paid by federal funds, leaving the city's share at about $300,000.

The project would extend the Freeway from its present terminus at W. 3rd and Monroe Sts. to Mulberry St. It is marked down to be undertaken in 1972.

HERE ARE the other 10 major projects, in brief:

1.—Enclosing the East End Run, $250,000 spread over five years with 50 per cent federal aid.

2.—Sanitary sewer projects in Gardendale, Sunnyside, Sunset Ave. and Pleasant Heights, $248,000 over two years, with 50 per cent federal aid, special assessments paying 40 per cent of the cost and the sewer reserve contributing 10 per cent.

3.—A local street improvement program, $225,000 spread over the six years, with special assessments and current city income paying the bill. The pro-

Reams Speaks At Meeting Here

Democrats Hold 'Breakfast Rally'

DEMOCRAT CANDIDATES. Sen. Frazier Reams, Democrat ic candidate for governor, shakes hands with Don R. Gosney, Columbiana County party chairman, at a breakfast meeting this morning. Left to right are Eldon Brown, candidate for state treasurer; Roy Allen of Columbiana, candidate for state represe ntative; County Auditor Kenneth Bell; Robert Owen, candidate for county commissioner; Reams; Gosney; Judge Clifford Bro wn, candidate for Supreme Court, and William Coleman, candidate for lieutenant governor.

Development of a major east - west highway in Columbiana County and increased state aid for school districts was promised by State Sen. Frazier Reams at a county Democratic breakfast meeting this morning at the Travelers Hotel.

About 150 attended the meeting at which Reams, Democratic candidate for governor, and other state candidates spoke.

Don R. Gosney, county Democratic chairman, introduced Reams and declared he felt people will support the candidate, "but they want to know what you're going to do for the county."

GOSNEY SAID the county "has been left the short end of the stick by both Republican and Democrat administrations," referring to the "slowness" of the river - lake highway project and "lack of other major highway development."

Reams stated he is interested in a major east-west traffic artery for the county and completion of the river-lake road to help develop industry in this area. He said he recognized the need for additional state financing for schools and declared he would boost the state role in aiding such finances.

William Coleman, candidate for lieutenant governor, referred to the "teacher crisis" which faces Ohio when classes begin in September. "We are over 9,000 teachers short, and will have to double up classes, use uncertified instructors and hold half - day sessions — leading to the most enormous education problem we have seen in Ohio in over 100 years."

He said a great part of the responsibility for the problem rests with Gov. James Rhodes and said Ohio has slipped from 37th to 47th in the amount of aid provided by the state for local schools.

"We must strive for a 50-50 partnership to encourage and keep capable tachers in Ohio," he declared.

JAMES D. NOLAN, candidate for secretary of state, referred to problems facing the state — "delinquency, air pollution, school finances, water pollution, breakdown of law and order and near bankruptcy of local government."

He said the present administration is not providing the adequate leadership to solve these problems, and is trying to convince voters there are no problems.

Attack Communist Training Camp

U.S. Marines Battle Reds In 2 Areas And Kill 211

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Marines fought their way into a Communist troop training camp 20 miles southwest of Da Nang today while others, farther north, battled a force of North Vietnamese regulars. The Americans were reported to have killed 211 of the enemy. Their own casualties were termed light.

Several hundred Leathernecks attacked the training camp, where guerrillas and North Vietnamese army men mingled. A spokesman estimated the enemy totaled about a battalion — perhaps 600 men — and said the Communist fire was extremely heavy.

A radio report from Lt. Col. Victor Ohanesian of New York City said his men burned 10 buildings and destroyed a large store of rice at the camp. A large cave and tunnel complex was uncovered.

The Marines counted 44 Communist dead.

The other action developed in a hunt for Communists along infiltration routes south of the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam. Marines fought a heavy 12-hour battle with North Vietnamese troops overnight.

U.S. spokesmen said 17 of the enemy died in this fight and about 150 others were killed from a detachment of 250 spotted pulling away from the combat area this morning.

Company-sized elements of the 4th Marine Regiment met late Tuesday with Communists well entrenched in fortifications and caves in the hills of the Cam Lo River valley, 18 miles west of Dong Ha and five miles south of the demilitarized zone.

The engagement was described as heavy until about dawn today, and then tapered off to light and moderate.

The Marine reconnaissance in force was quickly reinforced with aircraft, artillery and a reaction force of ground troops.

The spokesman said Marine casualties were light. He said 17 Communists were reported killed and two others captured.

In another ground action, a U.S. paratroop brigade engaged in an intensive search for the Viet Cong for two weeks east of Saigon was airlifted in a lightning maneuver into the jungles southeast of the city Tuesday the U.S. military command reported today.

The 173rd Airborne Brigade was flown in helicopters into Phuoc Tuy Province after U.S. Marines and Australian forces found evidence of the Viet Cong 5th Division.

Although no direct contact had been made with the enemy, documents, diaries and hot rice and other food left in disarray in jungle lairs indicated the Viet Cong were somewhere nearby, a spokesman said.

In the air war over North Viet Nam, bad weather forced Air Force and Navy planes to keep t coastal areas Tuesday, where they hammered communications and storage facilities. Eighty-six missions were flown.

Navy A4 Skyhawks pounced on four North Vietnamese torpedo boats discovered hidden among islands in the Tonkin Gulf and sank one, possibly sank a second and badly damaged a third.

Carrier-based Skyhawks also reported sighting three MIG17s during their forays, but the MIGs did not venture close enough for a fight.

The Saigon River channel between the capital city and the South China Sea, where an American freighter laden with war supplies was sunk by a Communist mine Tuesday, was reopened to traffic today.

The ship, the Baton Rouge Victory, rested on the bottom with water up to its maindeck as salvage experts examined the damage to determine whether to unload the cargo or refloat the vessel and tow it to Saigon for unloading.

Owen Interim Appointee

Democrats, Republicans Set Commissioner Races

The County Election Board today was awaiting certification of the names of an interim Columbiana County commissioner selected Tuesday night by the Democratic Central Committee and candidates chosen by the Republican and Democratic county party organizations to run against each other in the Nov. 8 general election for the more than two years remaining in the unexpired term of Frank C. Wilson of Wellsville, who died Aug. 15.

Robert Owen of Ohio Ave., former safety - service director here and Council member, was named the interim appointee, to serve until a successor to Mr. Wilson is elected and qualifies. He was chosen by the Democratic Central Committee.

The two men who were runnersup in the May primaries for their parties' commissioner nominations for full terms were selected at the separate meetings last night in Lisbon to bid for the balance of Mr. Wilson's term on the November ballot.

Republicans chose Charles Gause of Guilford Lake, president of Gause Equipment, Inc., on State Route 172 and a Hanover Township trustee for more than 12 years.

Owen's name also will be on the November ballot, running against James Boyd of near East Liverpool, the Republican incumbent, for a full four-year term as commissioner.

Boyd was nominated for a second term in the May primaries. Owen won the Democratic nomination in a three-way race.

The Democratic choices were made by the full central committee, which is made up of one member in each of the 167 precincts in the county. The Republicans' decision was made by the Executive Committee, a group made up of some of the members of the central committee.

Republicans met at their headquarters on E. Lincoln Way, Lisbon, with Charles A. Pike of Lisbon, chairman, presiding. The Democratic meeting was held a short distance away at the party's headquarters on N. Market St., Lisbon. Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, chairman, presided.

Hutter lost control of the auto as it headed down the long grade towards Chester, according to deputies. The vehicle was described as a total loss.

House Unit's Okay Due On Anti-Viet Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The full House Committee on Un-American Activities is expected to stamp quick approval today on administration-opposed legislation to slap stiff penalties on the activities of some anti-Viet Nam war groups.

A subcommittee approved the measure unanimously Tuesday.

Earlier, Deputy Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark had said the bill is unnecessary and might infringe on constitutional rights.

The committee is rushing to complete work on the measure before Acting Chairman Joe R. Pool, D-Tex., the chief sponsor of the bill, leaves Thursday for an inspection trip to Viet Nam.

The subcommittee took heed of some of the constitutional objections to the bill by deleting prohibitions on advising, counseling or urging others to give aid to enemies of the United States and to block the shipment of U.S. troops and materials.

But it left in the ban on soliciting, which Clark said might also infringe constitutional rights.

The subcommittee also reduced the penalties for obstructing troop movements to a maximum $10,000 fine and five years in prison. But it left the penalties for sending aid to the nation's enemies at a maximum $20,000 fine and 20 years in prison.

The bill is aimed primarily at groups which have solicited aid and blood for the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese and which have tried to block U.S. troops trains even though Clark testified: "There has been no successful behavior of the sort to be prohibited by this bill."

Nixon Plugs For All-Asian Peace Parley

Offers GOP War, Peace Plan; Hits Johnson's Efforts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is offering Republican Senate and House candidates a war-and-peace program of supporting President Johnson's Viet Nam course but criticizing his peace efforts.

He meets today with House Republicans.

Nixon got what Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, called enthusiastic approval when he plugged at a closed meeting of the Senate Republican Policy Committee Tuesday for a proposed all-Asian peace conference.

Nixon, the 1960 GOP presidential nominee who observers believe might make another try in 1968, spelled out his ideas this way:

He is supporting the prosecution of the Viet Nam conflict to the hilt because he thinks "it is the war to prevent World War III." He said he thinks the Communists would bring on World War III if they are not stopped in Asia.

Nixon said he thinks President Johnson is following a "dead-end street" in offering to base peace negotiations on the

Chrysler Corp. Target

UAW Workers Staging Protest

DETROIT (AP) — Skilled United Auto Workers demonstrate today at Chrysler Corp. headquarters to protest refusal of the Big Three car makers to reopen labor contracts.

The tradesmen, rejected Monday in their bid to reopen contracts to negotiate their demands for a 50-cent hourly pay raise, planned to march for four hours at the Chrysler offices.

Joe Zapha, an officer of the UAW's Chrysler Local 212, said representatices of skilled workers in 22 Detroit-area locals of the UAW called for the demonstration.

Only off-duty employes were being asked to participate, he said, but it was expected some skilled tradesmen might not go to work in order to participate in the demonstration.

Chrysler, General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. declined Monday to discuss revamping of skilled trades wages in their contracts with the UAW. The pacts will expire Sept. 6, 1967.

One concern among industry officials about any reopening of the contract was that unskilled and semiskilled production workers might also call for renegotiation of present contract wages.

There are nearly 100,000 skilled workers and 600,000 other production workers in the Big Three.

Plans for the demonstration were formed by the "$1 an Hour Now Steering Committee," comprised of UAW skilled tradesmen.

Its chairman, Christopher J. Manning, said: "The refusal of the Big Three to open the wage agreement on behalf of skilled trades has spurred the committee to further courses of action and has also generated more determination in the ranks to unite in this struggle."

The three auto firms, in rejecting the reopener requests, cited automatic pay hikes and cost-of-living increases which will take effect next month.

The raises coming due under the presen' contracts will boost pay scales from 11.5 cents an hour to 19.5 cents an hour.

Bonn Military And Political Row Spreads

Threatens To Oust Defense Chief And Hit Erhard's Office

BONN, Germany (AP) — The growing row between West German military and political leaders took on crisis proportions today as a third general asked to be retired.

A Defense Ministry spokesman disclosed that Maj. Gen. Guenther Paper, commander of the Third Military Region, has asked to be relieved of his command because he disagreed with a Defense Ministry decision allowing servicemen to join a labor union.

The row threatened to topple Defense Minister Kai-Uwe von Hassel and reach into the office of Chancellor Ludwig Erhard.

The dispute took on new urgency Tuesday as Gen. Heinz Trettner, 58, commander in chief of the armed forces, asked to be retired, saying he objected to Van Hassel's decision of Aug. 2 to allow soldiers, airmen and sailors to join the Public Services and Transport Workers Union.

The disclosure by the Defense Ministry of Trettner's request came a day after the ministry suspended the air force chief, Lte. Gen. Werner Panitzki, for

Development of a major east - west highway in Columbiana County and increased state aid for school districts was promised by State Sen. Frazier Reams at a county Democratic breakfast meeting this morning at the Travelers Hotel.

About 150 attended the meeting at which Reams, Democratic candidate for governor, and other state candidates spoke.

Don R. Gosney, county Democratic chairman, introduced Reams and declared he felt people will support the candidate, "but they want to know what you're going to do for the county."

GOSNEY SAID the county "has been left the short end of the stick by both Republican and Democrat administrations," referring to the "slowness" of the river - lake highway project and "lack of other major highway development."

Reams stated he is interested in a major east-west traffic artery for the county and completion of the river-lake road to help develop industry in this area. He said he recognized the need for additional state financing for schools and declared he would boost the state role in aiding such finances.

William Coleman, candidate for lieutenant governor, referred to the "teacher crisis" which faces Ohio when classes begin in September. "We are over 9,000 teachers short, and will have to double up classes, use uncertified instructors and hold half - day sessions — leading to the most enormous education problem we have seen in Ohio in over 100 years."

He said a great part of the responsibility for the problem rests with Gov. James Rhodes and said Ohio has slipped from 37th to 47th in the amount of aid provided by the state for local schools.

"We must strive for a 50-50 partnership to encourage and keep capable tachers in Ohio," he declared.

JAMES D. NOLAN, candidate for secretary of state, referred to problems facing the state — "delinquency, air pollution, school finances, water pollution, breakdown of law and order and near bankruptcy of local government."

He said the present administration is not providing the adequate leadership to solve these problems, and is trying to convince voters there are no problems.

Reams left for visits at Carrollton, Kent and Ashtabula later today and tonight.

Nixon Plugs For All-Asian Peace Parley

Offers GOP War, Peace Plan; Hits Johnson's Efforts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is offering Republican Senate and House candidates a war-and-peace program of supporting President Johnson's Viet Nam course but criticizing his peace efforts.

He meets today with House Republicans.

Nixon got what Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, called enthusiastic approval when he plugged at a closed meeting of the Senate Republican Policy Committee Tuesday for a proposed all-Asian peace conference.

Nixon, the 1960 GOP presidential nominee who observers believe might make another try in 1968, spelled out his ideas this way:

He is supporting the prosecution of the Viet Nam conflict to the hilt because he thinks "it is the war to prevent World War III." He said he thinks the Communists would bring on World War III if they are not stopped in Asia.

Nixon said he thinks President Johnson is following a "dead-end street" in offering to base peace negotiations on the

Chrysler Corp. Target

UAW Workers Staging Protest

DETROIT (AP) — Skilled United Auto Workers demonstrate today at Chrysler Corp. headquarters to protest refusal of the Big Three car makers to reopen labor contracts.

The tradesmen, rejected Monday in their bid to reopen contracts to negotiate their demands for a 50-cent hourly pay raise, planned to march for four hours at the Chrysler offices.

Joe Zapha, an officer of the UAW's Chrysler Local 212, said representatices of skilled workers in 22 Detroit-area locals of the UAW called for the demonstration.

Only off-duty employes were being asked to participate, he said, but it was expected some skilled tradesmen might not go to work in order to participate in the demonstration.

Chrysler, General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. declined Monday to discuss revamping of skilled trades wages in their contracts with the UAW. The pacts will expire Sept. 6, 1967.

One concern among industry officials about any reopening of the contract was that unskilled and semiskilled production workers might also call for renegotiation of present contract wages.

There are nearly 100,000 skilled workers and 600,000 other production workers in the Big Three.

Plans for the demonstration were formed by the "$1 an Hour Now Steering Committee," comprised of UAW skilled tradesmen.

Its chairman, Christopher J. Manning, said: "The refusal of the Big Three to open the wage agreement on behalf of skilled trades has spurred the committee to further courses of action and has also generated more determination in the ranks to unite in this struggle."

The three auto firms, in rejecting the reopener requests, cited automatic pay hikes and cost-of-living increases which will take effect next month.

The raises coming due under the present contracts will boost pay scales from 11.5 cents an hour to 19.5 cents an hour.

Bonn Military And Political Row Spreads

Threatens To Oust Defense Chief And Hit Erhard's Office

BONN, Germany (AP) — The growing row between West German military and political leaders took on crisis proportions today as a third general asked to be retired.

A Defense Ministry spokesman disclosed that Maj. Gen. Guenther Paper, commander of the Third Military Region, has asked to be relieved of his command because he disagreed with a Defense Ministry decision allowing servicemen to join a labor union.

The row threatened to topple Defense Minister Kai-Uwe von Hassel and reach into the office of Chancellor Ludwig Erhard.

The dispute took on new urgency Tuesday as Gen. Heinz Trettner, 58, commander in chief of the armed forces, asked to be retired, saying he objected to Van Hassel's decision of Aug. 2 to allow soldiers, airmen and sailors to join the Public Services and Transport Workers Union.

The disclosure by the Defense Ministry of Trettner's request came a day after the ministry suspended the air force chief, Lte. Gen. Werner Panitzki, for

We Must Resist Extremism

Politics, which is the science and art of government in its most respected connotation, is under serious indictment today because the people who practice it are more interested in re-election to public office than in the principles related to statesmanship.

At the root of the problem is the vast American electorate—the voters who cast their ballots to advance their own selfish interests in complete defiance of the welfare of the state and nation.

Few are the public office holders today who have the courage to stand up and be counted, even though their cause is a losing one. They are buffeted by minority pressure groups, cajoled by the special interest advocates and threatened by the faceless inciters of crime and corruption.

All too many surrender to these insidious forces, not understanding, or caring, what cancerous inroads are eating at the very vitals of responsible government.

TO WHOM must our public officials look for support? Must they bow to the anarchists?

Must they cringe before the lawless mobs that roam our streets?

Must they surrender to the big money spenders who are subjecting the nation's economy to an inflation binge?

Are they to be the pawns in a cringing compulsion to be all things to all people?

If the trend of the last few years is to continue, we are fast approaching the day when extremists at both ends of the political spectrum will run the country. And they will succeed, unless the public conscience asserts itself—not in meaningless blatherings about the awful fate that awaits our civilization but by a down-to-earth, realistic show of strength of purpose, direction and integrity.

It has often been said the best executive, the best legislator is the one-termer. The assumption is that such a politician has demonstrated the strength of his convictions, has resisted the pressures of selfish minorities and has clung steadfastly to principles of law and order even in a society that has gone recklessly haywire.

This is not invariably so, but there is amply evidence that the one-termer has been turned out of office because he refused to be a palavering stooge for the whims and foibles of those who never have and never will understand the true meaning and strength of responsible representative government.

RE-ELECTION is important, to be sure, but if it is won at the cost of self-respect and a troubled conscience, what hope is there for a crusade to lead this country out of the wilderness of confusion, excess, frustration and corruption in which we find ourselves.

Ours is a government of laws, not men.

Unless there is a respect for law—the men who make law, the men who interpret it and the men who enforce it—we are hell-bent for collapse.

Give us in our public offices one-termers or multiple-termers but let them be men fearless in the discharge of their responsibilities and dedicated to the public interest and not the private interest.

Gen. DeGaulle's Gold Game

By the end of August, France probably will have converted into gold the entire amount of $146 million which accrued to French reserves during July. That will bring the French gold hoard to almost $5.4 billion, next to the United States' the largest in the world.

Since the end of 1964, when president deGaulle announced that France would reduce its holdings of dollars, France has converted a minimum of $34 million — or 30 tons of gold — each month. The gold drain is alarming to many American economists, though opinion is not solid. The dollars France redeems ship gold from Ft. Knox to Paris.

When France engaged in the gold game, as money men call it, 73 per cent of its reserves were in gold. A year later the figure was 85 per cent. So far this year the rise has been gradual, to about 86 per cent. The reserve total is about $6 billion.

ACCUMULATION OF GOLD in the United States reached its high water mark in 1949, when American reserves totaled $24.6 billion. Since then the outflow has been consistent, though occasionally the rate has been reduced. Today the holding is slightly more than $13.3 billion, as against much more than $13.8 billion a year ago.

The gold drain stems from the chronic American deficit in the balance of international payments. We still sell more abroad than we buy, but that margin is dwindling. And our expenditures for the war in Viet Nam, our massive foreign aid, and private investment abroad tip the balance of payments machine to TILT.

All efforts of the last three administrations to redress the balance have been insufficient to the task. Some good news came on Aug. 18, when Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler announced that the payments deficit for April, May, and June was only $163 million. This was a trifle higher than the total of $150 hinted a week earlier, but still a healthy cut from the first quarter deficit of $563 million.

HOW LONG we can play the gold game with France remains to be seen. Already there is pressure in some parts of Congress and some sections of the press to make France pay the $6.5 billion owing to us since World War II.

Most economists say we are skating near the balance of payments abyss. But Eli Shapiro, Harvard Business professor of finance, recently told an international symposium that short term claims against the American gold stock have been exaggerated. Too little has been said about the U.S. long-term creditor position in the world, which has risen from $3 billion in 1946 to $55 billion today.

Why is France playing the gold game anyway? Some say it's a reflection of the ancient French peasant instinct to hoard gold in times of emergency. More likely, it's an attack on both the pound sterling and the dollar to try to effect currency revaluation.

A Bill Of Particulars

This isn't the kind of thing New Yorkers like to think about, but The New York Times reported one day last week that a manufacturer in Brooklyn was talked out of a decision to move out of the city by the intervention of Mayor Lindsay.

The manufacturer had given the mayor a copy of his reply to a questionnaire asking him what he thought of his present location. He said conditions had become so intolerable he couldn't keep his factory in Brooklyn any longer.

His bill of particulars is interesting reading in the Beautiful World of Ohio, hopefully extending invitations to manufacturers to consider this as the site of relocated enterprise.

The manufacturer objected to mounting taxes, deteriorating neighborhoods, indifferent police, higher and higher costs, inability to find competent personnel and an endless succession of government decisions adding to manufacturing overhead.

He was a native New Yorker, in love with his home town, but unable to rationalize continued operation there.

Naturally, he was surprised when his communication to the mayor elicited a visit by a high official of the Lindsay administration. The Lindsay administration, it is reasonable to believe, was surprised when the businessman said he would reconsider his decision to move his factory.

But the damage had been done. Those parts of the country interested in attracting business ready to leave New York City now know what management isn't looking for in a new location.

Political Bull Market

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The New York Stock Exchange is hitting new lows for 1966, but this year has turned into a political bull market for New York's young Democratic senator, Robert F. Kennedy.

He is being deluged with invitations to speak around the country in this fall's political campaigns just as the Gallup Poll says he is the choice of Democrats and independents for president in 1968.

Yet, Kennedy, who has made a bushel of statements on all kinds of issues since his election in 1964, has been consistent in saying he has no intention of being a candidate for anything in 1968.

This is the position he has repeatedly taken: that he supports President Johnson and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey for renomination and re-election in 1968; that he intends to run for no office that year; that he plans only to run for re-election to the Senate in 1970; that he has no plans to seek the presidency in 1972, and that he has no intention of running for the vice presidency in 1968.

BUT IF HE campaigns for Democratic candidates around the country this fall — while Johnson is doing the same thing — both men and the country as a whole — will learn a lot about their standing with the people.

Despite all his disclaimers about presidential ambitions in 1968, Kennedy didn't seem to react happily to Richard M. Nixon's appraisal Tuesday of Kennedy's chance for the presidency two years from now.

The former vice president said Kennedy has small chance of bouncing Johnson out of the No. 1 spot for the Democratic nomination in 1968 but that Johnson might want Kennedy as his vice-presidential running mate, instead of Humphrey.

Kennedy, hearing of this, said "I've never observed that Mr. Nixon's advice was very helpful to the Republicans, let alone to the Democrats. I only hope my political career will survive Mr. Nixon's endorsement."

An insight into the upsurge in Kennedy popularity around the country can be gained from a couple of dates, about a month apart.

Last July 21 Kennedy said he would campaign for Gov. Edmund G. Brown in California and undertake some vote - seeking missions on behalf of Democrats in Oregon and Wisconsin as well.

But a spokesman for him said Kennedy expected to devote most of his campaign this fall to New York.

TUESDAY HIS aides said he has a flood of invitations to speak for Democratic candidates outside New York and that so far he has definite commitments in California, Michigan, Illinois, Oregon, Montana, Maine and West Virginia, with invitations to speak in Ohio, Colorado, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Indiana, Massachusetts and Florida.

Although Kennedy has operated as a kind of independent spirit, being careful never to get too closely identified with Johnson, he has since coming to the Senate last year taken very few direct pokes at the President.

But he must have been a pain to Johnson many times — for Kennedy talks a lot — with his fault - finding about some Johnson policies and his suggestions on how they should be made better.

Help!

Dominican Labor Stand Outlined

Few governments in recent history have been born under such explosive and verbal fire as the administration which took over in Santo Domingo last month. Victor Riesel got the following reply when he asked the new president how his regime would treat labor.

By JOAQUIN BALAGUER
President of the Dominican Republic

SANTO DOMINGO — The historic process of the world labor movement shows us that the workers of a country have benefited from the experiences of more advanced countries and have adopted their methods in the organization of their own trade unions.

This was the way it happened when the first trade unions were organized in the United States. The workers embodied Europe's most advanced and experienced methods into their early trade unions.

We, in the Dominican Republic, in order to labor-orient our social environment, have had to learn from the various trade union systems in Latin America, which had earlier beginnings than ours in the pursuit of labor gains.

OUR TRADE UNION structures have likewise benefited from the North American labor movement and a good example of this is the training in labor education which is now being carried on in our country. Training is under the direction of the American Institute for Free Labor Development (AIFLD), whose educational programs, according to AIFLD claims, do not discriminate against the affiliates of the different trade unions and are available to all educational levels of workers.

While technical training is basic to the organization of trade unions, labor confraternity is of equal importance when practiced among organizations, among groups, and even among workers.

As a public figure, I firmly believe in this type of relationship and profess a unique devotion to human values wherever they are evidenced. I think that the most sincere representation of these values is exemplified in the ordinary worker, in the factory worker or the agricultural worker, who are the heartbeat of the life of a nation.

Having accepted this thought, I do not believe a diplomatic embassy exists which has as much power to establish close bonds among friendly sister countries as the workers have; and I agree with the concept that this mission can be best accomplished through direct relationships among organizations.

FOR THESE REASONS, I greatly sympathize with the interchange between Dominican workers with their brothers of the United States and other countries, and any effort towards this end would always have the encouragement of my government and, in particular, my own.

This interchange, which is inspired by a logical and natural sentiment of confraternity united by ties of common interests, should not involve any partisan political dependence because then the trade union movement, created in a spirit of confraternity, would lose its most precious attribute: Freedom.

It's a tangible reality that in order for the trade union movement to be free it is necessary that it not be tied to any national or international partisan political structures.

If such partisanship existed, the trade union movement would degenerate to simple appendixes of the local or international political parties and this, of course, would not be favorable to a labor movement.

Our party — the Reformist — can boast of representing a reviving current in defense of the progress of a free trade union movement.

We do not support any trade union central, neither do we aspire to control the labor movement. On the contrary, I recall, and I do not do so to get any recognition from Dominican workers, that it was under the regime of the first State Council, which I chaired, that the first trade unions began to operate in this country, and it was with them the history of the free labor movement in the Dominican Republic began.

THE SOCIAL POLICY of the basic program of government of the Reformist party is based on the attainment of a better life for the Dominican worker, including the forgotten rural worker to whom loans, social security services, the benefits of a minimum wage and other advantages enjoyed by the urban worker, will be extended.

I would like to emphasize a fact which constitutes one of our greatest social injustices, and this is in regards to the life experienced by rural workers, which has been one lacking of practically all the advantages granted to the other workers.

My government is determined to correct this injustice, and, in effect, has plans to provide the rural workers with the same benefits granted to the urban workers.

These plans include the accomplishment of an accelerated agrarian reform, within the concept of respect for private property; the establishment of sanitary services and of social assistance in the country; the construction of schools readily accessible to rural areas; the liberalization of loan financing for harvests; the establishment of a system of harvest insurance and the creation of agricultural, livestock, and consumer cooperatives, etc.

This does not mean that the rural worker would become the favored worker. The theme of our party. "Neither injustices, nor privileges," would be applied letter by letter in order to correct, in the case of the forgotten rural worker, an acute historic injustice.

WE WILL REHABILITATE our rural worker but we will also be greatly concerned so that, in general, all the working class, as an essential factor of our society, may receive all the benefits which it deserves.

We will work untiringly in order to maintain our labor movement free, exempt from daring enemies who, either from within their own organizations or from outside, conspire to exterminate it, even as they disguise as defenders.

We shall encourage by all possible means the interchange of the Dominican workers with the workers of the United States, Argentina, Brazil, Mexico and other sister countries, on a basis of equal relationships, but only as brothers and not as political slaves.

In this effort we propose to go even farther, without partisan sponsorships to warp the true nature of the vigorous Dominican labor movement, which can never be an appendage of a foreign political ideology which is in opposition to western democratic goals, nor an affiliate of a domestic political party.

Equal Rights

Campaign Idea Presented

Maybe the time has come to prohibit all financial contributions to the campaigns of candidates for public office or to political organizations and to forbid any substantial sums to be expended by a candidate out of his own pocket. This is not a new idea but one which, because of recent events, is again being discussed.

David Lawrence

During the present session of Congress, innuendoes have frequently been uttered with respect to the propriety of the so-called President's Club to which individuals — including heads of companies — contribute $1,000 or more for the privilege of attending special political functions at which the president is scheduled to be present.

In fact, it was charged in Congress a few days ago that a contractor and his family had donated $25,000 to the President's Club and that the contributor's firm would become the beneficiary of a piece of pending legislation involving a public project. The House voted it down.

Such an incident arouses suspicion, although as one House member said, it still may be only a "coincidence." The embarrassment, however arises just the same and may be unfair not only to the contributor but to the candidate who, when elected, must deal with matters that could affect any constituent.

IF THE CONGRESS would appropriate $60 million a year to be put in an election fund, this would cover the expenses of all campaigns, including primaries, for federal, state and local office. This is a small sum to spend out of the more than $100 billion appropriated each year by the federal government for a variety of items, hardly any of them as important as the preservation of the integrity of the whole election process. It would also remove the discrimination which arises in favor of the rich man in politics. He today can use not only his own funds but hundreds of thousands of dollars which sometimes is provided by relatives.

Organized labor, incidentally, seems to feel that the government should pay at least a part of political - campaign expenses by allowing a tax deduction or credit for such contributions. This was recommended by an AFL-CIO spokesman in testimony before the Senate Finance Committee last week. Union labor members usually contribute several million dollars to political campaigns.

CONGRESS HAS SET a maximum figure of $5,000 for representatives and $25,000 for senators as the amounts which they themselves can receive or spend in a campaign for election. There are proposals to increase these figures and also the limit of $5,000 a year which individuals can contribute to a candidate or political committee. The argument is that, with the advent of television and the high cost of campaigning, more realistic sums should be authorized as a maximum for individual contributions.

This doesn't reach the real problem, as the biggest sums of money spent in campaigns are collected and spent by organizations which are not identified with either of the two major political parties.

Thus, while corporations and labor unions are prohibited by the federal corrupt practices act from making contributions in connection with any election, this is really no barrier, because separate organizations are formed for political purposes only.

Time is contributed by persons whose salaries are paid by labor organizations or corporations, so the net result in many campaigns is a donation of time and money which the beneficiaries recognize fully as coming from certain interested groups.

IT WOULDN'T COST the taxpayer much to bear the expense of political campaigning, and the money could be appropriated for each state on a voter registration basis and allocated to regularly established political organizations outside as well as inside the major parties. A public accounting of every dollar spent would, of course, be required.

Federal disbursing officers would be appointed to allocate the funds just as federal registrars today are designated in certain states to supervise the registration process for voting. Individual contributions or the spending of private funds to elect any candidate would be banned by law. Maybe some day this will be adopted as the only sure way to prevent elections from being bought by vested interests.

I think that the most sincere representation of these values is exemplified in the ordinary worker, in the factory worker or the agricultural worker, who are the heartbeat of the life of a nation.

Having accepted this thought, I do not believe a diplomatic embassy exists which has as much power to establish close bonds among friendly sister countries as the workers have; and I agree with the concept that this mission can be best accomplished through direct relationships among organizations.

FOR THESE REASONS, I greatly sympathize with the interchange between Dominican workers with their brothers of the United States and other countries, and any effort towards this end would always have the encouragement of my government and, in particular, my own.

This interchange, which is inspired by a logical and natural sentiment of confraternity united by ties of common interests, should not involve any partisan political dependence because then the trade union movement, created in a spirit of confraternity, would lose its most precious attribute: Freedom.

It's a tangible reality that in order for the trade union movement to be free it is necessary that it not be tied to any national or international partisan political structures.

If such partisanship existed, the trade union movement would degenerate to simple appendixes of the local or international political parties and this, of course, would not be favorable to a labor movement.

Our party — the Reformist — can boast of representing a reviving current in defense of the progress of a free trade union movement.

We do not support any trade union central, neither do we aspire to control the labor movement. On the contrary, I recall, and I do not do so to get any recognition from Dominican workers, that it was under the regime of the first State Council, which I chaired, that the first trade unions began to operate in this country, and it was with them the history of the free labor movement in the Dominican Republic began.

THE SOCIAL POLICY of the basic program of government of the Reformist party is based on the attainment of a better life for the Dominican worker, including the forgotten rural worker to whom loans, social security services, the benefits of a minimum wage and other advantages enjoyed by the urban worker, will be extended.

I would like to emphasize a fact which constitutes one of our greatest social injustices, and this is in regards to the life experienced by rural workers, which has been one lacking of practically all the advantages granted to the other workers.

My government is determined to correct this injustice, and, in effect, has plans to provide the rural workers with the same benefits granted to the urban workers.

These plans include the accomplishment of an accelerated agrarian reform, within the concept of respect for private property; the establishment of sanitary services and of social assistance in the country; the construction of schools readily accessible to rural areas; the liberalization of loan financing for harvests; the establishment of a system of harvest insurance and the creation of agricultural, livestock, and consumer cooperatives, etc.

This does not mean that the rural worker would become the favored worker. The theme of our party, "Neither injustices, nor privileges," would be applied letter by letter in order to correct, in the case of the forgotten rural worker, an acute historic injustice.

WE WILL REHABILITATE our rural worker but we will also be greatly concerned so that, in general, all the working class, as an essential factor of our society, may receive all the benefits which it deserves.

We will work untiringly in order to maintain our labor movement free, exempt from daring enemies who, either from within their own organizations or from outside, conspire to exterminate it, even as they disguise as defenders.

We shall encourage by all possible means the interchange of the Dominican workers with the workers of the United States, Argentina, Brazil, Mexico and other sister countries, on a basis of equal relationships, but only as brothers and not as political slaves.

In this effort we propose to go even farther, without partisan sponsorships to warp the true nature of the vigorous Dominican labor movement, which can never be an appendage of a foreign political ideology which is in opposition to western democratic goals, nor an affiliate of a domestic political party.

Campaign Idea Presented

Maybe the time has come to prohibit all financial contributions to the campaigns of candidates for public office or to political organizations and to forbid any substantial sums to be expended by a candidate out of his own pocket. This is not a new idea but one which, because of recent events, is again being discussed.

David Lawrence

During the present session of Congress, innuendoes have frequently been uttered with respect to the propriety of the so-called President's Club to which individuals — including heads of companies — contribute $1,000 or more for the privilege of attending special political functions at which the president is scheduled to be present.

In fact, it was charged in Congress a few days ago that a contractor and his family had donated $25,000 to the President's Club and that the contributor's firm would become the beneficiary of a piece of pending legislation involving a public project. The House voted it down.

Such an incident arouses suspicion, although as one House member said, it still may be only a "coincidence." The embarrassment, however arises just the same and may be unfair not only to the contributor but to the candidate who, when elected, must deal with matters that could affect any constituent.

IF THE CONGRESS would appropriate $60 million a year to be put in an election fund, this would cover the expenses of all campaigns, including primaries, for federal, state and local office. This is a small sum to spend out of the more than $100 billion appropriated each year by the federal government for a variety of items, hardly any of them as important as the preservation of the integrity of the whole election process. It would also remove the discrimination which arises in favor of the rich man in politics. He today can use not only his own funds but hundreds of thousands of dollars which sometimes is provided by relatives.

Organized labor, incidentally, seems to feel that the government should pay at least a part of political - campaign expenses by allowing a tax deduction or credit for such contributions. This was recommended by an AFL-CIO spokesman in testimony before the Senate Finance Committee last week. Union labor members usually contribute several million dollars to political campaigns.

CONGRESS HAS SET a maximum figure of $5,000 for representatives and $25,000 for senators as the amounts which they themselves can receive or spend in a campaign for election. There are proposals to increase these figures and also the limit of $5,000 a year which individuals can contribute to a candidate or political committee. The argument is that, with the advent of television and the high cost of campaigning, more realistic sums should be authorized as a maximum for individual contributions.

This doesn't reach the real problem, as the biggest sums of money spent in campaigns are collected and spent by organizations which are not identified with either of the two major political parties.

Thus, while corporations and labor unions are prohibited by the federal corrupt practices act from making contributions in connection with any election, this is really no barrier, because separate organizations are formed for political purposes only.

Time is contributed by persons whose salaries are paid by labor organizations or corporations, so the net result in many campaigns is a donation of time and money which the beneficiaries recognize fully as coming from certain interested groups.

IT WOULDN'T COST the taxpayer much to bear the expense of political campaigning, and the money could be appropriated for each state on a voter registration basis and allocated to regularly established political organizations outside as well as inside the major parties. A public accounting of every dollar spent would, of course, be required.

Federal disbursing officers would be appointed to allocate the funds just as federal registrars today are designated in certain states to supervise the registration process for voting. Individual contributions or the spending of private funds to elect any candidate would be banned by law. Maybe some day this will be adopted as the only sure way to prevent elections from being bought by vested interests.

Bells Ringing On Cash Registers

NEW YORK (AP) —School bells are ringing bells on cash registers for the nation's merchants.

The back-to-school crowd pays more than $3 billion each year for Batman lunch boxes, Beatles writing tablets, plum hiprider skirts, the longest dipping all the way down to the top of the knee; white texture hose, long dazzling earrings, honey-hued corduroy jeans, red stretch tights, plaid school bags and fake fur hassocks.

Take a look at a few school girl figures:

Eugene Gilbert Youth Research, in a study for Seventeen magazine, sampled 5.8 million high school girls last year and another 618,000 who were off for their first year of college.

The college girls spent a total of $289,277,000, an average of $468.07 each, the survey indicated. The high school girls averaged $231.17 each, a total of $1,340,822,000 getting ready for school.

The survey estimated the girls bought more than 33 million pairs of shoes, sneakers, sandals, slippers and boots, 27.5 million blouses, 22 million skirts, 13 million dresses and 8 million sweaters, along with 8 million coats.

The Boys' Apparel Buyers' Association, Inc., estimates boys 6 to 18 spend $510 million to $575 million each August and September on clothing.

This year indications are the figures will be even larger — there are more teen-agers and some prices are higher.

That is why discount stores and fashion houses are sending out back-to-school catalogs, putting kicky clothes in display windows and spending thousands of dollars on fashion shows.

'It's a time of major expenditure," said Melvin E. Dawley, president of Lord & Taylor, New York.

Dawley estimated that the back-to-school and Christmas sales combined accounted for half of the year's business in children's departments, with Christmas sales about 25 per cent larger.

In Philadelphia, retailers are promoting tape recorders for class note-taking. A Chicago department store suggests a black and white mod room with vinyl pillows for studying. Denver stores report a brisk business in pots for boiling water for coffee or tea. Hair dryers are promoted as back-to-school items in Cleveland.

A Southern California chain is advertising bookcases, beds, desks, bedspreads, lamps and related items, and a St. Louis store is advertising student desks and chairs.

Citizens Committee Told

Frustration Held Cause Of Hough Racial Violence

CLEVELAND (AP) — Frustration in the East Side Hough area was responsible for last month's racial violence, a citizens committee was told Tuesday night.

This was in contrast to the official report by the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury earlier this month, which said the violence in Negro slums was organized by a small group of trained and disciplined professionals.

The Citizens Committee for Review of Grand Jury Report, which already has criticized the official report, heard from witnesses that frustration was fed by:

—Housing owned by landlords who do not live up to city housing codes. Compliants from Hough Avenue residents have either been forgotten or dismissed by city officials.

—Sporadic garbage collection, creating an area of filth and debris.

—Employers who consider job applicants with Hough addresses as undesirable employes.

—An apparent lack of effectiveness in delivering the goals of the federal antipoverty program to the grass roots level in Hough.

Edward Adams, a Hough resident, told attorney William Moore that "frustration among the people," touched off the rioting that left four dead by gunfire in five nights of shooting, looting and firebombing.

The citizens' hearing was sponsored by the Cleveland chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). About 250 attended.

Earl Rowe, a supervisor for the federal poverty program's Outreach Center, said that in contrast to the grand jury report of trained organizers, the only organized group he saw in the rioting was the Ohio National Guard.

"I observed no outside agitation," he said.

Since the rioting, Rowe said city equipment has come to clear the area of rubble and 500 jobs have been obtained for area residents in the last four weeks.

"I believe a new day has dawned in Hough," he said.

Mrs. Diana Towns, 16, who was in an auto driven by her husband, Henry, when it was hit by gunfire during the rioting, also testified.

She said police gunfire injured her right eye, which was removed recently, and that National Guardsmen "pulled my hair" and police beat her husband.

Towns was trying to drive his wife, two children and Mrs. Towns' half-brother, out of the area when police ordered them to stop. Police have said they opened fire when Towns' auto lurched at officers.

Three more hearings were scheduled by the committee.

46 Beauties Will Vie For Title At Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Forty-six beauties who will vie Saturday in the Miss U.S.A.-World Pageant are here, television star Art Linkletter is due shortly as an opening day star, Gov. James A. Rhodes presumably has his scissors sharpened, and Ohio's 1966 State Fair is set to open Thursday.

The governor, accompanied by his family, is scheduled to cut the ribbon at 6 a.m. EST and open what fair officials promise will be the biggest and best Ohio fair ever and one of the best anywhere in the nation.

It will be probably the longest in history here, running through Labor Day, and some of the biggest names in entertainment ever booked for the event are lined up for the grandstand shows.

Opening day is dedicated to Ohio's youth, and the first scheduled event is the Junior Fair Board breakfast. The All-Chio Boys' Band will perform in the grandstand at 1:30 and 7:30 p.m., and shows headed by Linkletter are slated for 2 and 8 p.m.

The Ohio Exposition Center has been renovated with new buildings and displays, record numbers of livestock are expected for judging, major farm equipment exhibits are set up and there's, of course, the midway.

GOP Club Staffs Booth For Fair

Mrs. Daniel Wilson is chairman of a booth which the South Side Republican Club is sponsoring at the Hookstown Fair, which began today and will run through Saturday.

Mrs. Wilson said memberships may be renewed or new members may join at the booth which will be staffed afternoon and evening by club members. Beaver County Republican candidates will be present at the booth from time to time, Mrs. Wilson said.

A gift will be presented to each person registering or renewing membership.

Monday night's scheduled meeting was canceled because of illness in the chairman's family. The next regular meeting will be Sept. 26 at 8 p.m.

Resolution Filed For School Levy On Nov. 8 Ballot

The East Liverpool Board of Education filed a resolution Tuesday with the County Election Board asking a ballot place at the Nov. 8 general election in a third attempt to win the electorate's approval of a 3.5-mill levy to provide funds for current operating expenses — primarily increased teacher salaries.

The measure for resubmission of the proposal was approved at the board's last meeting on Aug. 15.

Requiring only a bare majority for approval, the levy would be in effect 10 years. The resolution says only that the funds would be used for "current expenses," but the board, in approving the resolution, mentioned the need to provide additional money for raises already granted teachers.

The levy would yield about $180,000 annually. It will be voted upon in the 43 precincts that comprise the school district — all of East Liverpool and Liverpool Township and part of St. Clair Township.

The measure was rejected by wide margins in its last two tests at the polls. Last May, voters turned it down, with 1,192 in favor and 3,232 against. In November 1965, 1,906 voted in favor of the levy, but 5,208 were opposed.

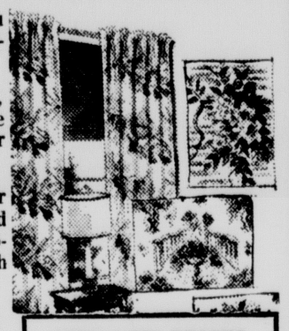

About 9 million homes now have their own food waste disposers.

Citizens Committee Told

Frustration Held Cause Of Hough Racial Violence

CLEVELAND (AP) — Frustration in the East Side Hough area was responsible for last month's racial violence, a citizens committee was told Tuesday night.

This was in contrast to the official report by the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury earlier this month, which said the violence in Negro slums was organized by a small group of trained and disciplined professionals.

The Citizens Committee for Review of Grand Jury Report, which already has criticized the official report, heard from witnesses that frustration was fed by:

—Housing owned by landlords who do not live up to city housing codes. Compliants from Hough Avenue residents have either been forgotten or dismissed by city officials.

—Sporadic garbage collection, creating an area of filth and debris.

—Employers who consider job applicants with Hough addresses as undesirable employes.

—An apparent lack of effectiveness in delivering the goals of the federal antipoverty program to the grass roots level in Hough.

Edward Adams, a Hough resident, told attorney William Moore that "frustration among the people," touched off the rioting that left four dead by gunfire in five nights of shooting, looting and firebombing.

The citizens' hearing was sponsored by the Cleveland chapter of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). About 250 attended.

Earl Rowe, a supervisor for the federal poverty program's Outreach Center, said that in contrast to the grand jury report of trained organizers, the only organized group he saw in the rioting was the Ohio National Guard.

"I observed no outside agitation," he said.

Since the rioting, Rowe said city equipment has come to clear the area of rubble and 500 jobs have been obtained for area residents in the last four weeks.

"I believe a new day has dawned in Hough," he said.

Mrs. Diana Towns, 16, who was in an auto driven by her husband, Henry, when it was hit by gunfire during the rioting, also testified.

She said police gunfire injured her right eye, which was removed recently, and that National Guardsmen "pulled my hair" and police beat her husband.

Towns was trying to drive his wife, two children and Mrs. Towns' half-brother, out of the area when police ordered them to stop. Police have said they opened fire when Towns' auto lurched at officers.

Three more hearings were scheduled by the committee.

46 Beauties Will Vie For Title At Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Forty-six beauties who will vie Saturday in the Miss U.S.A.-World Pageant are here, television star Art Linkletter is due shortly as an opening day star, Gov. James A. Rhodes presumably has his scissors sharpened, and Ohio's 1966 State Fair is set to open Thursday.

The governor, accompanied by his family, is scheduled to cut the ribbon at 6 a.m. EST and open what fair officials promise will be the biggest and best Ohio fair ever and one of the best anywhere in the nation.

It will be probably the longest in history here, running through Labor Day, and some of the biggest names in entertainment ever booked for the event are lined up for the grandstand shows.

Opening day is dedicated to Ohio's youth, and the first scheduled event is the Junior Fair Board breakfast. The All-Chio Boys' Band will perform in the grandstand at 1:30 and 7:30 p.m., and shows headed by Linkletter are slated for 2 and 8 p.m.

The Ohio Exposition Center has been renovated with new buildings and displays, record numbers of livestock are expected for judging, major farm equipment exhibits are set up and there's, of course, the midway.

GOP Club Staffs Booth For Fair

Mrs. Daniel Wilson is chairman of a booth which the South Side Republican Club is sponsoring at the Hookstown Fair, which began today and will run through Saturday.

Mrs. Wilson said memberships may be renewed or new members may join at the booth which will be staffed afternoon and evening by club members. Beaver County Republican candidates will be present at the booth from time to time, Mrs. Wilson said.

A gift will be presented to each person registering or renewing membership.

Monday night's scheduled meeting was canceled because of illness in the chairman's family. The next regular meeting will be Sept. 26 at 8 p.m.

Resolution Filed For School Levy On Nov. 8 Ballot

The East Liverpool Board of Education filed a resolution Tuesday with the County Election Board asking a ballot place at the Nov. 8 general election in a third attempt to win the electorate's approval of a 3.5-mill levy to provide funds for current operating expenses — primarily increased teacher salaries.

The measure for resubmission of the proposal was approved at the board's last meeting on Aug. 15.

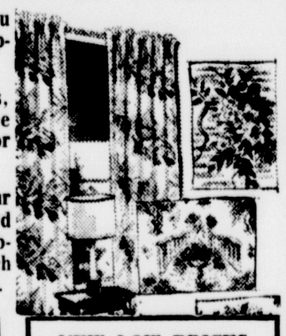

Requiring only a bare majority for approval, the levy would be in effect 10 years. The resolution says only that the funds would be used for "current expenses," but the board, in approving the resolution, mentioned the need to provide additional money for raises already granted teachers.

The levy would yield about $180,000 annually. It will be voted upon in the 43 precincts that comprise the school district — all of East Liverpool and Liverpool Township and part of St. Clair Township.

The measure was rejected by wide margins in its last two tests at the polls. Last May, voters turned it down, with 1,192 in favor and 3,232 against. In November 1965, 1,906 voted in favor of the levy, but 5,208 were opposed.

About 9 million homes now have their own food waste disposers.

gram suggests expenditure of $35,000 in each of the first three years and $40,000 a year for the last four years.

4.—Parks and recreation, $240,000 overall, with $40,000 budgeted each year, paid with 50 per cent federal assistance and 50 per cent local funds.

5.—Renovation or replacement of the North Side Fire Station, $15,000, to be paid from current city income.

6.—Enlargement of off-street parking facilities, $240,000, budgeted at $80,000 in 1968, $80,000 in 1970 and $80,000 in 1972 and financed by general obligation bonds against revenues.

7.—A "high school loop road" to take care of the anticipated boost in traffic when the new building is erected on Maine Blvd., $220,000 earmarked for expenditure in 1969, with 50 per cent federal aid, 30 per cent in general obligation bonds and 20 per cent in special assessments. It would follow Jennings Ave., McKinnon Ave., Maine Blvd., Ambrose Ave. and Bradshaw Ave.

8.—Central business district sidewalk and street improvements, $375,000 spread over three years and covered by special assessments and current city receipts.

9.—Downtown beautification by establishing pedestrian malls on 5th St. between Jackson and Washington Sts. and Washington St. betweeen E. 5th and E. 6th Sts., $225,000 spread over three years, with 50 per cent in federal aid and the other half financed by general obligation bonds.

10.—A "lower downtown urban renewal project," covering the area between 3rd St. and the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. right-of-way, $1,400,000 marked for expenditure in 1972, with federal aid providing 75 per cent of the total.

ZIEGLER devoted much of his report to an analysis of the city's financial position, particularly its bonded debt. He concluded that by 1972 the city "should have sufficient borrowing capacity to finance the estimated $300,000 local share of Phase II of the Freeway."

"When the needs for improvements are foreseen, financing can be arranged in advance to avoid a heavy strain on the annual budget," Ziegler's report commented. "Site acquisition for future use can be made in advance to take advantage of favorable prices. Payments for various items can be spread out evenly over several years. These are some of the many advantages that can be derived from financial planning for public improvements.

"The process of developing a financial plan can be broken down into three steps — the measurement of needs, the preparation of a long-range program and the preparation of a capital improvements program."

Concluding, Ziegler said East Liverpool can develop a public works program to meet its increasing needs if city officials and residents "are willing to tap additional revenue resources and possibly to incur additional debt obligations."

"This is an inescapable conclusion," he commented. "Communities which are trying to build for tomorrow cannot achieve their goals with a financial policy geared to yesterday."

Ziegler recommended that the Planning Commission play an active role in preparation of the city's annual budget. He conceded that the commission can act only in an adviscry role to Council, but he added: "The six-year capital improvement budget obviously can become a meaningful tool only if annual appropriations are made which conform more or less to the program."

Gaining citizen support for a program of public works that obviously will cost money involves "stirring the imagination of the public so that it begins to look to the future and to new parks, cultural facilities and other community assets which tax dollars will buy and which everyone — or nearly everyone — wants," he said.

Following Ziegler's 50-minute outline of the proposed capital improvements plan to the public works committee, the commission discussed with the zoning committee — headed by Dr. Roland Stover — its work on zoning proposals.

Stover said the committee has met once, but has additional work to do.

Discussion centered on whether certain residential areas of the city near industries would be designated as industrial development sites, to permit expansion of present industry or to allow for new industry, or whether these sections would be kept residential and encouraged to improve their properties.

Various aspects of commercial zoning in residential areas also were reviewed.

Nixon

Geneva accord and thus involve European nations. Instead, Nixon said, the non-Communist nations of Asia ought to draft proposals for a settlement, even if the Communists ignore them at this point.

There was a great deal more about what he called Johnson's failure to sell the war goals to the country. But Nixon's basic advice to GOP candidates was: Support the flag but offer an alternative to Johnson's thus far unsuccessful efforts to get peace negotiations going.

While Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., balked at interpreting the formula in just this way, he said in an interview that Republicans are not going to contribute to any misunderstanding on the part of Hanoi about the lack of national unity Nixon mentioned.

Nixon was optimistic about the chances of regaining Senate and House seats lost in 1964. He said that Democratic divisions over Viet Nam and party rivalry between Johnson and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., are helping Republican prospects.

Nixon observed that the polls indicate Kennedy, brother of the late president, may be "the most popular Democrat" at this point. He said he doubts Kennedy could succeed in replacing Johnson as the 1968 Democratic presidential nominee, but he speculated that the President might dump Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Kennedy replied that he didn't need Nixon's advice.

"I have never observed that Mr. Nixon's advice was very helpful to the Republicans, let alone to the Democratic party," he said in a statement. "I only hope my political career will survive Mr. Nixon's endorsement."

While Nixon was free with his remarks about the Democrats, he wouldn't talk about possibilities for the 1968 Republican ticket.

Germany

criticizing the government and its purchase of the air force's crash-prone F104G Starfighters. Panitzki charged the plane purchase was inspired by politicians and said the Defense Ministry needed to be reorganized.

German political observers viewed the row swirling around the two generals as a crucial clash between the military and ruling politicians, who have made great efforts to keep the 430,000- member armed forces under their control since the country was allowed to rearm in the middle '50s.

'When, of the four most important generals, two handed in their resignation in protest against the attitude of their ministers, it is high time that the chancellor and the Bundestag determine if the minister is in command of the situation," said Helmut Schmidt, deputy chairman of the opposition Social Democratic party and one of its defense experts.

The Social Democratic party and the Free Democratic party, which is the junior partner in Erhard's coalition government, have been dissatisfied with Von Hassel, considering him not up to the job and an obstacle in the way of Bonn's efforts to improve relations with the Communist bloc.

A special session of the Bundestag has been scheduled to investigate Panitzki's charges.

Panitzki, 55, asked to be relieved of his duties Aug. 12, the day before Trettner made a similar request. No action was taken on Panitzki's request, which was not made public until Von Hassel suspended him Monday.

Trettner was due for retirement next year. A spokesman said Erhard would consider Trettner's case when he returns from vacation Thursday.

The Defense Ministry first opposed allowing the union to enter armed forces ranks, saying that it could interfere with military discipline. But faced with a court test, Van Hassel relented and gave permission. About 100,000 servicemen already belong to the German Forces Union, which is more an association than a union. Both unions are pledged not to strike.

"This is an inescapable conclusion," he commented. "Communities which are trying to build for tomorrow cannot achieve their goals with a financial policy geared to yesterday."

Ziegler recommended that the Planning Commission play an active role in preparation of the city's annual budget. He conceded that the commission can act only in an advisory role to Council, but he added: "The six-year capital improvement budget obviously can become a meaningful tool only if annual appropriations are made which conform more or less to the program."

Gaining citizen support for a program of public works that obviously will cost money involves "stirring the imagination of the public so that it begins to look to the future and to new parks, cultural facilities and other community assets which tax dollars will buy and which everyone — or nearly everyone — wants," he said.

Following Ziegler's 50-minute outline of the proposed capital improvements plan to the public works committee, the commission discussed with the zoning committee — headed by Dr. Roland Stover — its work on zoning proposals.

Stover said the committee has met once, but has additional work to do.

Discussion centered on whether certain residential areas of the city near industries would be designated as industrial development sites, to permit expansion of present industry or to allow for new industry, or whether these sections would be kept residential and encouraged to improve their properties.

Various aspects of commercial zoning in residential areas also were reviewed.

Nixon

Geneva accord and thus involve European nations. Instead, Nixon said, the non-Communist nations of Asia ought to draft proposals for a settlement, even if the Communists ignore them at this point.

There was a great deal more about what he called Johnson's failure to sell the war goals to the country. But Nixon's basic advice to GOP candidates was: Support the flag but offer an alternative to Johnson's thus far unsuccessful efforts to get peace negotiations going.

While Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., balked at interpreting the formula in just this way, he said in an interview that Republicans are not going to contribute to any misunderstanding on the part of Hanoi about the lack of national unity Nixon mentioned.

Nixon was optimistic about the chances of regaining Senate and House seats lost in 1964. He said that Democratic divisions over Viet Nam and party rivalry between Johnson and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., are helping Republican prospects.

Nixon observed that the polls indicate Kennedy, brother of the late president, may be "the most popular Democrat" at this point. He said he doubts Kennedy could succeed in replacing Johnson as the 1968 Democratic presidential nominee, but he speculated that the President might dump Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Kennedy replied that he didn't need Nixon's advice.

"I have never observed that Mr. Nixon's advice was very helpful to the Republicans, let alone to the Democratic party," he said in a statement. "I only hope my political career will survive Mr. Nixon's endorsement."

While Nixon was free with his remarks about the Democrats, he wouldn't talk about possibilities for the 1968 Republican ticket.

criticizing the government and its purchase of the air force's crash-prone F104G Starfighters. Panitzki charged the plane purchase was inspired by politicians and said the Defense Ministry needed to be reorganized.

German political observers viewed the row swirling around the two generals as a crucial clash between the military and ruling politicians, who have made great efforts to keep the 430,000- member armed forces under their control since the country was allowed to rearm in the middle '50s.

'When, of the four most important generals, two handed in their resignation in protest against the attitude of their ministers, it is high time that the chancellor and the Bundestag determine if the minister is in command of the situation," said Helmut Schmidt, deputy chairman of the opposition Social Democratic party and one of its defense experts.

The Social Democratic party and the Free Democratic party, which is the junior partner in Erhard's coalition government, have been dissatisfied with Von Hassel, considering him not up to the job and an obstacle in the way of Bonn's efforts to improve relations with the Communist bloc.

A special session of the Bundestag has been scheduled to investigate Panitzki's charges.

Panitzki, 55, asked to be relieved of his duties Aug. 12, the day before Trettner made a similar request. No action was taken on Panitzki's request, which was not made public until Von Hassel suspended him Monday.

Trettner was due for retirement next year. A spokesman said Erhard would consider Trettner's case when he returns from vacation Thursday.

The Defense Ministry first opposed allowing the union to enter armed forces ranks, saying that it could interfere with military discipline. But faced with a court test, Van Hassel relented and gave permission. About 100,009 servicemen already belong to the German Forces Unior, which is more an association than a union. Both unions are pledged not to strike.

Why do we carry Jumping Jacks in 000 sizes?

Because kids' feet come in 000 sizes.

Parents like the fact that we carry enough sizes to fit every youngster's foot, from toddlers to teens, just right. Youngsters like the fact that we have Jumping Jacks in the most popular styles, in their favorite colors. They all agree that Jumping Jacks are soft, light and flexible. No wonder when people think of children's shoes, they think of us.

ards, the Election Board will place their names on the ballot for the unexpired term, which runs through the end of 1968.

Owen's name also will be certified in order that it can be relayed to Secretary of State Ted W. Brown at Columbus, who will issue the new official's commission.

State law gave the Democratic Central Committee the right to name the new commissioner. The law says such a vacancy will be filled by the central committee of the party with which the deceased official was affiliated.

The holdover commissioners are Boyd and R. Max Gard of near Lisbon, a Democrat.

Gause ran second to Boyd in the five - way Republican race for the nomination for a full term at the primaries. Boyd polled 3,439 to Gause's, 2,622. Also in the race were Samuel B. Webber of East Liverpool, Albert C. Althouse of near Winona and Robert J. Dutcher of Salem R. D. 3.

The Democratic primary field was made up of Owen, Sowards and Feruson H. Kind of East Liverpool. Sowards finished so close to Owen that it believed for a time there might be a recount.

Gause is a member of the County Trustees and Clerks Association, the Guilford Lake Civic Association and the Hanover Township Civic Benefit Association. He also belongs to the County Farm Bureau, Guilford Grane and the Lisbon Eastles Lodge. One of his sons, James (Ronnie) Gause, is a deputy sheriff.

Sowards has served as Elkrun Township precinct committeeman and president of the Central Columbiana County Democratic Club. He served with 3rd Infantry Division in World War II. He is a member of the American Legion, the Lisbon Area Chamber of Commerce and East Liverpool Elks Lodge 268.

Owen's interim teams as commissioner will begin as soon as he receives his commmission. It will end a few days after the November election. The law says he will serve until his successor is elected and qualifies.

Owen served one term as First Ward councilman and later was safety-service director for several years under former Mayor Bert H. Goodballet.

He was elected Council president during the early months of his duty as director, but served only briefly, then resigned to return to the administration post. He has been in the used car business since leaving the city post.

New Teacher Named For School At Lisbon

LISBON — School Supt. Joe W. Driscoll has employed Mrs. Mabel Davis of New Middletown to teach second grade in the village school system in the 1966 - 67 term. She substituted frequently here last year.

A band director and bus driver are needed to complete the faculty and operating staff. Schools will open Tuesday, Sept. 6.

Victor Herbert's "The Fortune Teller" had a run of only 40 performances at the turn of the century, but its hit tune, "Gypsy Love Song," has retained its popularity to this day.

Owen's interim teams as commissioner will begin as soon as he receives his commmission. It will end a few days after the November election. The law says he will serve until his successor is elected and qualifies.

Owen served one term as First Ward councilman and later was safety-service director for several years under former Mayor Bert H. Goodballet.

He was elected Council president during the early months of his duty as director, but served only briefly, then resigned to return to the administration post. He has been in the used car business since leaving the city post.

Bucs Fall, Giants Go To Head Of National Loop Class

Marichal Posts Victory No. 18

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ollie Brown is still 531 home runs behind Willie Mays. It just doesn't seem that much to Juan Marichal today.

Brown, San Francisco's surprise center Tuesday night, walloped a three-run homer, propelling surprise starter Marichal to his 18th victory as the Giants whipped Cincinnati 7-3 and regained the National League lead.

Their fourth straight victory, coupled with Pittsburgh's 5-4 loss to Philadelphia, lifted the Giants one game ahead of the Pirates in the tight race.

Brown, a light-hitting rookie with five major league homers to his credit, was shifted to center field when Manager Herman Franks decided to rest Mays, who had smashed his 537th career homer three days ago.

Marichal picked Mays' night off for his own return to action. The Dominican right-hander, troubled recently by a sprained ankle, had not been expected to be ready until Friday. He hurt his left ankle three weeks ago in Chicago and aggravated the injury last Wednesday against St. Louis.

But he told Franks before Tuesday night's game that he was fit and the manager made the switch from his listed starter, Ray Sadecki.

For 3½ innings, the change appeared to be for the worse. Deron Johnson's bases-empty homer in the second and Leo Cardenas' two-run shot in the top of the fourth put Marichal behind 3-2.

Then, in the last of the fourth, Jesus Alou singled across the tying run and Brown, batting seventh in the line-up, sent the Giants ahead to stay with his three-run blast off Milt Pappas.

In Tuesday's other NL action, the third-place Los Angeles Dodgers shaded Atlanta 8-7, St. Louis blanked Houston 3-0 on Bob Gibson's three-hitter and the New York Mets trimmed Chicago 4-1.

Marichal gave up eight hits in boosting his season mark to 18-5. It was his first winning start since July 25.

Bill White's second two-run single of the night snapped a 3-3 tie in the seventh, leading the Phillies past Pittsburgh. His first hit capped a three - run burst in the first inning and knocked out Pirate starter Vern Law, who failed to retire a batter.

Left-hander Chris Short yielded seven hits, including a three-run homer by Roberto Clemente in the fifth, en route to his 15th victory against seven setbacks.

Willie Davis' two-run single with two out in the ninth climaxed a three-run rally that gave the Dodgers their second squeaker over Atlanta in two nights. Singles by Lou Johnson and Jim Gilliam and an error by second baseman Woody Woodward got the first run home before Davis delivered the winning blow.

Dal Maxvill drove in two St. Louis runs and scored the third, helping Gibson breeze to his 16th victory. The Cardinal right-hander struck out five and scattered singles in the fifth, eighth and ninth innings. Maxvill had two singles, a double and a walk in four trips to the plate.

Dennis Ribant checked the Cubs on five hits while Cleon Jones, with a two-run homer, and Ron Swoboda, with three singles, led the Mets' attack against Dick Ellsworth, who now has dropped 19 of 24 decisions.

Steelers Obtain Frisco Lineman

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Football League, seeking added strength for their offensive line, obtained guard Steve Barnett from the San Francisco 49ers Tuesday for a future draft choice.

To make room for Barnett, the Steelers asked waivers on halfback Chester Ward of New Castle, Pa., and Rutgers University, who was signed as a free agent.

Defensive halfback Bobby Hohn, who injured a hip in the Steelers intrasquad game in Kingston, R.I., went to Divine Providence Hospital in Pittsburgh to rest.

Colavito's Blast Gives Tribe Edge

Sam Continues Comeback On 2-1 Win Over Orioles

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Dean Chance and Sam McDowell spent the last two months in something of a pitcher's limbo. Two of the top hurlers in the American League, they had managed three victories between them.

Then, just as suddenly as they faded away, the two pitchers reversed field and now they look like themselves again. James Bond might even have trouble with this mystery.

McDowell signaled the end of the dry spell with a three-hit shutout against Chicago last Friday. Then the Cleveland lefthander came back with a 2-1 six-hitter against American League-leading Baltimore Tuesday night.

Not to be outdone, Chance fired a three-hitter as California shaded New York 1-0.

Rocky Colavito's 28th home run proved to be the winning run for McDowell, who had the Orioles shut out until the eighth inning.

"I'm slowly getting my control back," said McDowell, who suffered with arm trouble after winning four games before the season was a month old. "I'm slowly getting my control back, but my coordination's still off."

Chance, 9-15, managed to smile through his trouble, "I'll be a candidate for Comeback of the Year," the Angel right-hander said, "next year."

Meanwhile, Jim Kaat, who has flourished despite the demise of the defending champion Minnesota Twins, won his 19th with a five-hitter against Washington, beating the Senators 7-0 in the first game of a twi-night doubleheader. Washington won the nightcap 4-3.

Elsewhere, Chicago edged Detroit 2-1 in 12 innings with Gary Peters going all the way and Kansas City's doubleheader at Boston was postponed by rain.

McDowell struck out 10 and hurled his sixth complete game. His first five route-going efforts were all shutouts. He had the Orioles blanked until Frank Robinson's two-out single delivered a run in the eighth.

Rich Rollins' grand-slam homer gave Kaat an early cushion against the Senators and the Minnesota left-hander coasted to the victory. It pushed is record to 19-9.

Willie Kirkland's pinch homer, leading off in the bottom of the eighth, gave the Senators the split in the nightcap.

Peters had Detroit shut out 1-0 with two out in the bottom of the ninth but Norm Cash walloped his 21st homer, sending the game into extra innings.

The White Sox, who had scored a run without a hit in the fifth inning against Johnny Podres, pushed the winner across in the 12th on pinch hitter Wayne Causey's sacrifice fly.

Get Ready For Opener, Our Aim, Says Graham

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)— "Our aim is to be ready for the regular season — that opener with the Browns."

Otto Graham, Washington Redskins coach and former Browns quarterback, was talking about the Sept. 11. National Football League opener between the two clubs at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

The Browns get a chance to see the Redskins in person Friday night, and vice versa, when Washington meets the Minnesota Vikings in the opener of the pro football doubleheader. Cleveland plays Baltimore in the second game.

"We have a new staff and a number of new players," Graham said Tuesday from the Redskins' training camp at Carlisle, Pa. "We're building slowly."

"We need running backs," Graham added. "Charley Taylor is a good one but he hurt that ankle again against the Bears. It doesn't seem serious but he may not be ready this week. To tell the truth, I'm not sure who'll be in there."

Graham will have quarterback Sonny Jurgensen ready for the Vikings. "Jugensen has been very good," Graham said. "Sonny throws as well as anybody. He's also a real student of the game and knows defenses. I'm certainly happy to have him."

No Decision Reached Over Clay's Status

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Cassius Clay's draft board says it's all right to leave the country for a title fight next month, but the heavyweight champion has no inkling of whether he'll eventually escape the military draft.

A four-hour hearing on Clay's appeal for an exemption brought the disclosure he's been a minister for two years in the Muslim religion he embraces — "preaching and converting people."

Clay came out of the hearing Tuesday and said it was "just like I was in a courtroom but there was no decision. When there is one, I'll be the first to hear."

The champion's attorney, Hayden Covington, has asked his draft board to reopen the entire case "so Clay can be considered for an exemption as Muslim minister."

The hearing stemmed from Clay's earlier appeal for a draft deferment as a conscientious objector. Special Judge Lawrence Grauman, appointed by the Justice Department to hear the case, will forward his recommendations back to the department.

A recommendation will then be made to Clay's appeal board here.

Clay disclosed Tuesday that the draft board had given him permission to leave the country for his September fight with Karl Mildenberger in Frankfurt, Germany.

The champion was accompanied to Tuesday's hearing by his parents. He was carrying a copy of the Koran which "we Muslims believe are revelations made to Muhammad by Allah."

Break Helps Jim Ryun To Renew Enthusiasm

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Jim Ryun of Kansas, holder of two world track records at 19, says watching films of his races "still puts a chill in my spine" and he believes he has "as many years as I want to run ahead of me."

Ryun has just gone back to work after a three-week vacation from track, his first in four years, and he believes the break helped him renew his enthusiasm.

"The idea that high school trackmen burn themselves out by working too hard too early is dwindling away," Ryun said Tuesday night. "I think this has been pretty well disproved by now.

"I think I can continue to improve and to run well as long as I'm interested in track," he said. "My whole college varsity career is ahead of me. One of the best things about athletics is being with your teammates, traveling with your team."

Ryun will be available for very few — if any — special events on track's indoor and outdoor circuits while the Kansas track season is on.

"This is the way I want it," he said. "There will be plenty of big meets here and in other countries after the college national meets are over."

Ryun was supposed to narrate the films. Typically, he did most of his talking during his defeats. No film was available on his world record 1:44.9 half mile at Terre Haute, Ind., the race which surprised him the most.

"I couldn't believe it," he said. "I made my move about 300 yards to go, looked around and I was 10 yards ahead."

Jets Remain 2½ Games In Front

By The Associated Press

Bill Robinson's booming bat went 7-for-10 with four RBI's Tuesday night as the Richmond Braves clouted last-place Syracuse in a pair, 9-1 and 8-2, to advance within a single game of Buffalo's fourth-place Bisons of the International League. In other action, the Bisons, who also have been hot lately, beat Columbus in the opener of a twin bill, 2-1, but dropped the nightcap to the Jets' two - run ninth inning rally, 2-1.

Despite the split, the Jets maintained their 2½-game advantage over second - place Rochester, which after clipping Jacksonville 4-3, lost to the Suns 10-8. Third-place Toronto gained a half-length as Julio Navarro shut out Toledo, 7-0, and now is 3½ games behind Columbus.

Don Rudolph gave Columbus 10 hits but forced the Jets to abandon 11 batters in winning Buffalo's opener with the Jets. Len Boehmer knocked in both runs with a seventh-inning single. Columbus, however, used three walks, a wild pitch and singles by Manuel Sanguillen and Dave Roberts for a pair of ninth-inning runs that took the afterpiece.

Navarro gave up eight hits and fanned 11 in Toronto's win over Toledo.

Miami 'Babies' In First AFL Exhibition Tonight

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pro football history will be made tonight if the new Miami Dolphins of the American Football League win their first game ever by defeating the Denver Broncos at Memphis, Tenn.

"The brand new babies" of the AFL, as part-owner Danny Thomas refers to the Dolphins, aren't expected to do so, however, even though the exhibition game pairs two winless teams.

The Broncos, beaten by Buffalo and Kansas City, still are regarded as stronger than the Dolphins, trounced by San Diego, Kansas City and the New York Jets.

"We're not supposed to beat these teams yet," Thomas said. "The Dolphins need time to grow up. We're the brand new babies.'

The game gets this week's exhibition schedule off to an early start since the Broncos play again on Sunday afternoon at home against Oakland in a nationally televised game over the NBC network.

A sellout crowd of more than 80,000 is expected to see the National Football League doubleheader at Cleveland Friday night.

Minnesota meets Washington in the first game with the Cleveland Browns taking on the Baltimore Colts in the second which will be televised over the CBS network.

Eight games are listed for Saturday, five in the NFL and three in the AFL. The New York Giants and the Philadelphia Eagles play at Princeton, N.J., Saturday afternoon. Saturday night, Pittsburgh is at Green Bay, St Louis at Los Angeles, Dallas and Detroit tangle at Tulsa and San Francisco meets Atlanta at Columbia, S.C.

Houston is at Kansas City, Boston at San Diego and Buffalo battles the New York Jets at Allentown, Pa., in the three AFL Saturday night exhibitions.

There were several deals Tuesday as clubs in both leagues cut down their rosters.

The Cleveland Browns traded fullback Charley Scales to Atlanta for a future draft choice. Dallas dealt guard Jake Kupp to Washington for a future draft choice. Green Bay sent halfback Ron Rector to Washington for a draft choice. San Francisco dealt guard Steve Barnett to Pittsburgh, also for a draft choice.

Veteran tackle Roosevelt Brown was placed on the injured reserve list by the New York Giants of the NFL. The 34-year-old Brown will be out for the entire season because of phlebitis in his right leg.

Break Helps Jim Ryun To Renew Enthusiasm

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Jim Ryun of Kansas, holder of two world track records at 19, says watching films of his races "still puts a chill in my spine" and he believes he has "as many years as I want to run ahead of me."

Ryun has just gone back to work after a three-week vacation from track, his first in four years, and he believes the break helped him renew his enthusiasm.

"The idea that high school trackmen burn themselves out by working too hard too early is dwindling away," Ryun said Tuesday night. "I think this has been pretty well disproved by now.

"I think I can continue to improve and to run well as long as I'm interested in track," he said. "My whole college varsity career is ahead of me. One of the best things about athletics is being with your teammates, traveling with your team."

Ryun will be available for very few — if any — special events on track's indoor and outdoor circuits while the Kansas track season is on.

"This is the way I want it," he said. "There will be plenty of big meets here and in other countries after the college national meets are over."

Ryun was supposed to narrate the films. Typically, he did most of his talking during his defeats. No film was available on his world record 1:44.9 half mile at Terre Haute, Ind., the race which surprised him the most.

"I couldn't believe it," he said. "I made my move about 300 yards to go, looked around and I was 10 yards ahead."

Jets Remain 2½ Games In Front

By The Associated Press

Bill Robinson's booming bat went 7-for-10 with four RBI's Tuesday night as the Richmond Braves clouted last-place Syracuse in a pair, 9-1 and 8-2, to advance within a single game of Buffalo's fourth-place Bisons of the International League. In other action, the Bisons, who also have been hot lately, beat Columbus in the opener of a twin bill, 2-1, but dropped the nightcap to the Jets' two - run ninth inning rally, 2-1.

Despite the split, the Jets maintained their 2½-game advantage over second - place Rochester, which after clipping Jacksonville 4-3, lost to the Suns 10-8. Third-place Toronto gained a half-length as Julio Navarro shut out Toledo, 7-0, and now is 3½ games behind Columbus.

Don Rudolph gave Columbus 10 hits but forced the Jets to abandon 11 batters in winning Buffalo's opener with the Jets. Len Boehmer knocked in both runs with a seventh-inning single. Columbus, however, used three walks, a wild pitch and singles by Manuel Sanguillen and Dave Roberts for a pair of ninth-inning runs that took the afterpiece.

Navarro gave up eight hits and fanned 11 in Toronto's win over Toledo.

Miami 'Babies' In First AFL Exhibition Tonight

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Pro football history will be made tonight if the new Miami Dolphins of the American Football League win their first game ever by defeating the Denver Broncos at Memphis, Tenn.

'The brand new babies'' of the AFL, as part-owner Danny Thomas refers to the Dolphins, aren't expected to do so, however, even though the exhibition game pairs two winless teams.

The Broncos, beaten by Buffalo and Kansas City, still are regarded as stronger than the Dolphins, trounced by San Diego, Kansas City and the New York Jets.

"We're not supposed to beat these teams yet," Thomas said. "The Dolphins need time to grow up. We're the brand new babies.'

The game gets this week's exhibition schedule off to an early start since the Broncos play again on Sunday afternoon at home against Oakland in a nationally televised game over the NBC network.

A sellout crowd of more than 80,000 is expected to see the National Football League doubleheader at Cleveland Friday night.

Minnesota meets Washington in the first game with the Cleveland Browns taking on the Baltimore Colts in the second which will be televised over the CBS network.

Eight games are listed for Saturday, five in the NFL and three in the AFL. The New York Giants and the Philadelphia Eagles play at Princeton, N.J., Saturday afternoon. Saturday night, Pittsburgh is at Green Bay, St Louis at Los Angeles, Dallas and Detroit tangle at Tulsa and San Francisco meets Atlanta at Columbia, S.C.

Houston is at Kansas City, Boston at San Diego and Buffalo battles the New York Jets at Allentown, Pa., in the three AFL Saturday night exhibitions.

There were several deals Tuesday as clubs in both leagues cut down their rosters.

The Cleveland Browns traded fullback Charley Scales to Atlanta for a future draft choice. Dallas dealt guard Jake Kupp to Washington for a future draft choice. Green Bay sent halfback Ron Rector to Washington for a draft choice. San Francisco dealt guard Steve Barnett to Pittsburgh, also for a draft choice.

Veteran tackle Roosevelt Brown was placed on the injured reserve list by the New York Giants of the NFL. The 34-year-old Brown will be out for the entire season because of phlebitis in his right leg.

Five Unhurt In Accidents

Five drivers escaped injury in three area traffic mishaps investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon Tuesday.

A sideswipe accident on Route 170, about five miles south of Negley, at 5:15 involved a 1954 sedan operated by Ernest Stitt, 56, of Dewey Ave. and a 1957 station wagon driven by Billy Joe Lilly, 16, of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1.

The latter attempted to pass the city motorist while both were headed south and the two vehicles sideswiped, each reporting to offciers the other's car hit his.

Howard Swick, 19, of Beaver Falls was cited after his 1966 sedan collided with an oncoming 1963 sedan driven by Janet Beame, 23, of Sebring on Route 14 four miles east of Route 7, at 8:50 p. m.

Osficers said Swick was headed east, passing some trucks, and was unable to return to his own lane in time to avoid sideswiping the other car. He was charged with passing without the assurred clear distance.

Officers are continuing investigation of the damaging of a 1966 sedan operated by Laura Hadley, 70, of Lisbon which was struck by coal from a passing truck on Route 172 about three miles west of Lisbon at 3:30 p. m.

Toastmasters Present Rotary Club Program

Harold Sneddon, who is president of the local Toastmasters group and also a Rotarian, traced the history of Toastmasters, originated in East Liverpool in 1942 through the YMCA.

—:—

EARL CARLTON was the original club director. Charter members included Richard Crable, George Shaw, Richard Wilson and Joseph Cooper, who was the program chairman yesterday.

During the war, Sneddon explained, membership declined, and the club was disbanded until recent months.

Assisting in reorganizing the Toastmasters in East Liverpool were, in addition to Sneddon, James Cunningham, a former member of City Council, and Charles Cronin, assistant editor of the Weirton Steel Employes Bulletin, who both spoke at the meeting yesterday.

Cunningham related his experiences at the Toastmasters meetings and how he benefitted from being a member of the club. He described the various awards, such as the "bull-thrower" award, presented to the aspiring speakers.

Cronin presented a version of a talk entitled "How To Give Our Youth The Business," which brought him the runner - up award in the Upper Ohio Valley Toastmasters contest last spring at Weirton.

The talk dealt with the international Junior Achievement program, which was adopted this month in southeastern Columbiana County.

CRONIN traced the growth of Junior Achievement, which sets up realistic miniature business concerns for high school youths along the lines of a real corporation. "For eight months of the year, these boys and girls go through every step of organizing and operating a small-scale business concern," Cronin explained.

"Some of them are going to step into the role of leadership in our country in just a short time — in government, in industry, in the professions."

"It is our job to see that they are prepared for the responsibility of perpetuating the system of free enterprise and private business which has made America the mightiest, most productive nation in the history of the world."

Visiting Rotarians at yesterday's meeting were Harry Lessley of Newark, new Boy Scout executive for the Cherokee District; Dave Schwerha of Midland, and George Schweiger of Weirton.

William Blair introduced Ray DeNunzio, also a guest.

During Picnic At Park

Group Honors Teacher

More than 125 attended a basket picnic supper at Thompson Park Tuesday in honor of Miss Mildred McGregor, who is retiring as principal of Westgate Elementary School.

Miss McGregor has been a teacher for 40 years, 10 of which were spent at Westgate. She also was principal at Taft, Washington and 6th St. schools and taught at Horace Mann and Lincoln.

She was presented flowers by Mrs. Ramona Treadway, chairman of homeroom mothers, and a gift by Mrs. Frank Hilliard, president of the Westgate Parent - Teacher Association, at left in the photo above.

In charge of arranging the picnic were Mrs. Paul Enochs, Mrs. Dorhman Treadway and Mrs. Lester Devore. Mrs. Donald Raber was gift committee chairman.

Guests who were registered included teachers, past PTA presidents and cafeteria workers.

Five Unhurt In Accidents

Five drivers escaped injury in three area traffic mishaps investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon Tuesday.

A sideswipe accident on Route 170, about five miles south of Negley, at 5:15 involved a 1954 sedan operated by Ernest Stitt, 56, of Dewey Ave. and a 1957 station wagon driven by Billy Joe Lilly, 16, of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1.

The latter attempted to pass the city motorist while both were headed south and the two vehicles sideswiped, each reporting to offciers the other's car hit his.

Howard Swick, 19, of Beaver Falls was cited after his 1966 sedan collided with an oncoming 1963 sedan driven by Janet Beame, 23, of Sebring on Route 14 four miles east of Route 7, at 8:50 p. m.

Osficers said Swick was headed east, passing some trucks, and was unable to return to his own lane in time to avoid sideswiping the other car. He was charged with passing without the assurred clear distance.

Officers are continuing investigation of the damaging of a 1966 sedan operated by Laura Hadley, 70, of Lisbon which was struck by coal from a passing truck on Route 172 about three miles west of Lisbon at 3:30 p. m.

She was headed west when the coal truck rounded a curve, and spilled coal on the left front hood of the car.

Toastmasters Present Rotary Club Program

Harold Sneddon, who is president of the local Toastmasters group and also a Rotarian, traced the history of Toastmasters, originated in East Liverpool in 1942 through the YMCA.

—:—

EARL CARLTON was the original club director. Charter members included Richard Crable, George Shaw, Richard Wilson and Joseph Cooper, who was the program chairman yesterday.

During the war, Sneddon explained, membership declined, and the club was disbanded until recent months.

Assisting in reorganizing the Toastmasters in East Liverpool were, in addition to Sneddon, James Cunningham, a former member of City Council, and Charles Cronin, assistant editor of the Weirton Steel Employes Bulletin, who both spoke at the meeting yesterday.

Cunningham related his experiences at the Toastmasters meetings and how he benefitted from being a member of the club. He described the various awards, such as the "bull-thrower" award, presented to the aspiring speakers.

Cronin presented a version of a talk entitled "How To Give Our Youth The Business," which brought him the runner - up award in the Upper Ohio Valley Toastmasters contest last spring at Weirton.

The talk dealt with the international Junior Achievement program, which was adopted this month in southeastern Columbiana County.

CRONIN traced the growth of Junior Achievement, which sets up realistic miniature business concerns for high school youths along the lines of a real corporation. "For eight months of the year, these boys and girls go through every step of organizing and operating a small-scale business concern," Cronin explained.

"Some of them are going to step into the role of leadership in our country in just a short time — in government, in industry, in the professions."

"It is our job to see that they are prepared for the responsibility of perpetuating the system of free enterprise and private business which has made America the mightiest, most productive nation in the history of the world."

Visiting Rotarians at yesterday's meeting were Harry Lessley of Newark, new Boy Scout executive for the Cherokee District; Dave Schwerha of Midland, and George Schweiger of Weirton.

William Blair introduced Ray DeNunzio, also a guest.

6 Salt Companies Cited

W. Va. And 11 Cities Sue For Alleged Price-Fixing

CHARLESTON (AP) — West Virginia has joined in a multi-state, mammoth antitrust suit against seven firms for alleged rigging of rock salt prices, with claimed damages running into the millions of dollars.

The state and 11 cities filed a $2.1 million suit in U.S. District Court at Minneapolis against six salt companies, which allegedly conspired to fix rock salt prices "in violation of federal antitrust laws."

Rock salt is used in winter to cut ice from pavements.

State Atty. Gen. O. Donald Robertson told a news conference here Tuesday that the suit was filed in the Minnesota court because it is where "most of the circumstances relating to this illegal conspiracy and price-fixing have been disclosed."

He said the 11 cities involved were: Charleston, Huntington, Wheeling, Beckley, Bluefield, Clarksburg, Fairmont, Morgantown, Moundsville, St. Albans and Weirton.

Companies named in the suit were: Morton International, Inc., Delaware; Diamond Crystal Salt Co.; Michigan; International Salt Co., New Jersey; Carey Salt Co., Kansas; Cayuga Salt Co., New York, and Hardy Salt Co., New York.

Named as co-conspirators — but not as defendants — were the American Salt Co., Olathe, Kan.; Barton Salt Co., Hutchison, Kan.; Cutler - Magner Co., Duluth, Minn., and Cargil, Inc., Minneapolis.

The suit charged the firms with conspiracy from January 1956 at least through 1961 to "fix salt prices abnormally high in violation of federal antitrust laws."

Robertson said the defendant firms and the co - conspirators "fixed and maintained arbitrary prices; quoted identical prices... and submitted non-competitive, collusive and rigged bids to states and municipalities throughout the United States, including West Virginia."

He also said more suits involving sale of rock salt in other communities in the state likely would be filed in the future.

Two related cases involving other states were apparently settled in other courts Tuesday.

In Minneapolis, the federal government prosecuted an antitrust suit against Morton, Diamond Crystal, International and Carey, involving the years 1961 and 1962.

Carey pleaded no contest and was fined $10,000. The other three firms were acquitted. But U.S. District Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye ruled that the companies were liable for civil damages nevertheless.

Also, the state of Illinois recovered $163,563 from Morton Salt Co. of Chicago and Diamond Crystal.

The award was given by the U.S. District Court at Minneapolis, holding that the two firms "in conspiracy with International Salt and others, acted in violation of Section 1 of the Sherman Antitrust Act as charged in the federal civil complaint."

State Education Job Accepted By Urton Anderson

LISBON — Urton Anderson, 40, high school supervisor for the Columbiana County school system the last four years, will go to work Sept. 1 for the State Department of Education.

Interviewed Tuesday at Columbus, he accepted the post of educational consultant in the Division of Federal Assistance, Title I.

Anderson last week told the County Board of Education the position had been offered. The board agreed to release him if he accepted.

Earlier this summer, the county board hired Anderson to coordinate federal assistance programs for the four local districts. He decided against taking the job when a question arose over using title I funds to augment district money for his salary.

Pete Marra, former elementary principal at United School, is at work in the county office as Anderson's successor as high school consultant.

Anderson is a science major with bachelor's and master's degrees from Capital University and Kent State University, respectively. He taught at Berlin Center Local, 1949-54, and Boardman Junior High, 1954-57, and was principal of Fairfield School in Fairfield - Waterford District when hired as high school supervisor in 1962.

Anderson and his wife, Alice, and their sons, Urton Jr. and Rick, reside in Greenford, Salem R. D. 5. They plan to move to Columbus.

Hancock Delays School Lunches

Hancock County school officials reminded parents the school lunch program in the schools will not start the first day of school — Monday — but will begin Sept. 6.

Because of the difficulty in determining the number of students to be served and other preparation work for the cafeterias, the lunch program will be delayed, the officials explained.

Students should bring lunches or make other arrangements the first week, they suggested.

Red Cross Seeks Aid For City Fire Victims

The East Liverpool Area Red Cross Chapter today appealed for contributions of furniture, bedding, household items and clothing for a city family whose home was damaged heavily by fire Aug. 14.

Chris Pallis, disaster chairman for the chapter, said the aid is needed for Mr. and Mrs. Cledith Miller of Crawford Ave. and their family. The parents were visiting in West Virginia when the blaze swept the structure.

Pallis said anyone wishing to contribute may notify the chapter office by telephone and the items will be picked up.

Anchorage hotel man Walter J. Hickel pulled well ahead in the Republican gubernatorial nomination with 6,380 votes against 2,625 for another Anchorage hotel executive, Bruce Kendall, and 2,360 for Mike Stepovich, onetime territorial governor.

In the Democratic race for the U.S. House of Representatives, Rep. Ralph J. Rivers held a 10,018 to 8,991 margin over Mike Gravel of Anchorage, speaker of the State House of Representatives. State Sen. Howard W. Pollock of Anchorage, unopposed for the Republican nomination, had 9,755.

Other unofficial returns from the 250 precincts showed Sen. E.L. Bartlett far ahead in the Democratic senatorial nomination race. Bartlett had 16,561. T. J. Bichsel of Anchorage had 1,122, Robert L. Beach of Soldotna had 745 and David N. Boyer of Kenai had 524.

For the Republican senatorial nomination it was Lee L. McKinley of Palmer leading his opponents with 5,508. Larry Brayton of Fairbanks followed with 3,208. Maxine B. Whaley of Fairbanks had 1,155.

Airman, Wife, 4 Children Killed In Plane Crash

RONKONKOMA, N.Y. (AP)— An Air Force captain, his wife and four children were killed Tuesday when their small rented plane crashed only miles from where they had spent a week swimming and visiting relatives.

Three Prisoners Slug Guard And Escape In Auto

SCRANTON Pa. (AP)—Three prisoners from the Lackawanna County Jail slugged a guard, herded five other persons into the warden's office and then escaped in a guard's automobile Tuesday night.

Scranton police, who said the trio was 'armed and dangerous," identified the escapees as Ronald Hannick, 30, of Scranton; Richard Moranko, 29, of Dickson City and Joseph Marsala, 17, of Scranton.

Authorities said Marsala was recently returned to custody after escaping from the same jail in late July. Hannick also broke jail earlier this year and was recaptured at gunpoint May 29.

Moranko was being held for failure to appear for trial June 2 in connection with burglary charges. Marsala was wanted for questioning in connection with a series of car thefts and burglaries. He also had escaped from a reformatory in Floydsville, Pa., McCrone said. It was not immediately known why Marsala was held.

Pennsylvania Hall in Philadelphia was burned in 1839 by a pro - slavery mob because some anti - slavery meetings had been held there.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "I'm the original lady in black, whether anybody likes it or not," said Ditra Flame, placing a red rose near Rudolph Valentino's crypt.

"I've been to every single anniversary," said Miss Flame, who formerly dressed in black, carried a basket of roses and arrived at the crypt in a black limousine.

"But in 1954 the thing got out of hand — people started coming in wild costumes — so I started visiting the crypt the night before."

BOSTON (AP) — Richard Cardinal Cushing, Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston, is going to a birthday party today — his own. He is 71.

The party will be at the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Memorial Hospital. About 100 children are expected to join the cardinal for cake and ice cream.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. Tak Woo's problem with her car is mushrooming.

She said Tuesday she didn't know whether to take it to a mechanic or a gardener when she found a crop of brown and white mushrooms sprouting from the floor matting.

She decided on a mechanic who said, "It looks like there may be a leak in the air conditioner which makes the carpet damp."

And if repairing the air conditioner doesn't do it?

"I'm on my third crop," says Mrs. Woo. "If only I could be sure they were edible."

BENTON HARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Lee Emmanuel, 6, was worried after he pulled the trigger of a shotgun locked in a special clamp in a police car, blasting a hole in the car roof.

"I hope I didn't kill God," the boy said.

Lee was among a group of children touring the Benton Harbor police station Monday. Nobody was injured in the incident.

Police Chief Merle McCarroll said the shotgun should not have been loaded.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — "I trust I will not have to admonish you again," the judge told the young lawyer. "Such outbursts are completely inappropriate in a court of law."

Man Held Guilty On Brick Charge

The case was referred last month from East Liverpool Municipal Court.

Judge Louis Tobin said he decided the conflicting testimony in favor of the youth, Harold E. Watson, also of Thompson Pl., because Patrolman Karl W. Sample of the police department here, testified he saw a bruise on the boy's leg. The boy said Bazluk threw the brick at him.

The incident occurred the evening of July 12 at Bazluk's apartment building where the Watsons live.

Judge Tobin said testimony indicated Bazluk had "some provocation." The court ordered him to pay $26 — $7 for the doctor who treated the boy and $19 to East Liverpool City Hospital, where he was taken for X-rays.

The court ordered Bazluk and the Watsons to stay away from each other and refer any future complaints to the Police Department.

2-Way Crash Hurts Woman

A woman driver suffered apparent minor injuries in a two-way crash Tuesday afternoon on Pennsylvania Ave. at Harker Ave., one of three collisions that marred East Liverpool traffic yesterday, police reported.

The mishap involved a halted 1961 model sedan driven by Mrs. Jean Marie Brown, 42, of Smith Dairy Rd. and a 1961 sedan operated by Harold C. Marshall, 47, of 222 Ravine St., officers said.

Mrs. Brown, shaken by the collision, said she would consult her family physician, officers said.

She reported she was halted in a line of traffic when her car was hit from the rear. Marshall blamed brake failure. A mechanic who checked the auto at the request of police said the master cylinder of the braking system was dry. Patrolman Orin C. Smith investigated.

Marshall was fined $15 and costs when he pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

A parked car and a light truck were involved in a minor collision Tuesday at 7:51 p. m. in Ridge Alley, officers said.

The parked 1962 two-door sedan of William A. Frail of 3119 Gilson Ave. was damaged on the left front fender when bumped by a 1947 model 1½-ton truck operated by Nathan D. Alpern, 68, of 1414 Pennsylvania Ave.

Alpern told police he was maneuvering into a parking place and misjudged the distance, causing him to bump the Frail auto.

Raymond D. Roe, 35, of 812 Lincoln Ave. told officers his 1962 sedan was damaged in a hit-skip accident Tuesday at 5:57 p. m. on Walnut St. just off St. Clair Ave.

Roe said he pulled up behind another auto on Walnut at St. Clair. The car ahead drifted backward and hit Roe's car, then the other driver left the scene without checking to see if Roe's vehicle was damaged, he said.

Roe told Patrolman W. F. Copestick the mishap damaged the front bumper and hood of his auto and the transmission would not go into reverse.

Crew Finishes Repair On Broken Water Line

A city water department crew finished repair Tuesday on an 8-inch main that developed a break Sunday morning near the Horn Switch railroad tracks east of Broadway, Supt. Harold Peterson reported.

A six-foot section of the line was cut out and replaced. Peterson said service was restored shortly before noon.

Service in the immediate area was disrupted during the repair. Since the main was an old fire line, it serves few customers, Peterson explained. The water department rigged up improvised service to help supply a market with water-cooled compressors in its food refrigerating equipment.

Sports Coupe Runs Into Bridge Abutment

An auto driven by James D. Birkhimer, 23, of 804 Morton St. ran into the abutment of the Chester bridge about 6:30 a.m. today after being forced over by an oncoming auto passing another, Audley Campbell, Chester police chief, reported.

Birkhimer's 1960 sports coupe, which was headed toward East Liverpool, received damage estimated at $600. The motorist was uninjured.

Rody Herron was re-elected to the executive committee for a three-year term.

Mrs. Hilda Allison was named lecturer.

Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Herron were chosen delegates to the state grange meeting Oct. 20-22 at Jackson's Mill, with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Stewart alternates.

2-Way Crash Hurts Woman

A woman driver suffered apparent minor injuries in a two-way crash Tuesday afternoon on Pennsylvania Ave. at Harker Ave., one of three collisions that marred East Liverpool traffic yesterday, police reported.

The mishap involved a halted 1961 model sedan driven by Mrs. Jean Marie Brown, 42, of Smith Dairy Rd. and a 1961 sedan operated by Harold C. Marshall, 47, of 222 Ravine St., officers said.

Mrs. Brown, shaken by the collision, said she would consult her family physician, officers said.

She reported she was halted in a line of traffic when her car was hit from the rear. Marshall blamed brake failure. A mechanic who checked the auto at the request of police said the master cylinder of the braking system was dry. Patrolman Orin C. Smith investigated.

Marshall was fined $15 and costs when he pleaded guilty today in Municipal Court on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

A parked car and a light truck were involved in a minor collision Tuesday at 7:51 p. m. in Ridge Alley, officers said.

The parked 1962 two-door sedan of William A. Frail of 3119 Gilson Ave. was damaged on the left front fender when bumped by a 1947 model 1½-ton truck operated by Nathan D. Alpern, 68, of 1414 Pennsylvania Ave.

Alpern told police he was maneuvering into a parking place and misjudged the distance, causing him to bump the Frail auto.

Raymond D. Roe, 35, of 812 Lincoln Ave. told officers his 1962 sedan was damaged in a hit-skip accident Tuesday at 5:57 p. m. on Walnut St. just off St. Clair Ave.

Roe said he pulled up behind another auto on Walnut at St. Clair. The car ahead drifted backward and hit Roe's car, then the other driver left the scene without checking to see if Roe's vehicle was damaged, he said.

Roe told Patrolman W. F. Copestick the mishap damaged the front bumper and hood of his auto and the transmission would not go into reverse.

Crew Finishes Repair On Broken Water Line

A city water department crew finished repair Tuesday on an 8-inch main that developed a break Sunday morning near the Horn Switch railroad tracks east of Broadway, Supt. Harold Peterson reported.

A six-foot section of the line was cut out and replaced. Peterson said service was restored shortly before noon.

Service in the immediate area was disrupted during the repair. Since the main was an old fire line, it serves few customers, Peterson explained. The water department rigged up improvised service to help supply a market with water-cooled compressors in its food refrigerating equipment.

Sports Coupe Runs Into Bridge Abutment

An auto driven by James D. Birkhimer, 23, of 804 Morton St. ran into the abutment of the Chester bridge about 6:30 a.m. today after being forced over by an oncoming auto passing another, Audley Campbell, Chester police chief, reported.

Birkhimer's 1960 sports coupe, which was headed toward East Liverpool, received damage estimated at $600. The motorist was uninjured.

'Antisocial Activities'

Soviet Union Sentences 6 Of Baptist Sect To Prison

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union has sentenced six members of a Baptist sect to prison terms of unspecified length on charges of "antisocial activities" and influencing childrens' minds with books containing "nonsensical notions on reality."

The newspaper Teacher's Gazette said Tuesday that the trial took place in Rostov-on-Don but did not say when.

According to the paper, the sect organized a street demonstration last May 2 and disrupted public order not only by the demonstration but by baptizing 40 young persons in the Don River. One of those baptized was a girl member of the Young Communists' League.

The paper said she and another girl "behaved bitterly and fanatically in court" during the trial.

The sect leaders set up an illegal Sunday School "in which illiterate and fanatical teachers taught 'God's word' to children 8 to 11 years old, and persistently and systematically accustomed them to a religious outlook," the Gazette said.

The May 2 baptism came on a Monday immediately after May Day which happened to fall on a Sunday this year. The indictment charged the sect with holding meetings that conflicted with official Soviet holidays — all of which come on Sundays except for May Day and the Nov. 7 anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

The Baptist sect was accused of influencing young minds through books that contained "nonsensical notions on reality, a disbelief in everything noble and good—they convince believers that there is no happiness on earth and never can be."

One defendant was described as engineer P. D. Belenky who gave Baptist lectures while on business trips. Three others were listed as Zhovmiruk, Bolgovya and Yerisov. Two were unidentified.

The paper did not say whether there was any connection between this Baptist sect and another one at Mtsensk, near Orel, denounced last May 22.

The Rev. Alexander Karev, general secretary of the Baptist Union in the Soviet Union, said the one based in Mtsensk was small and fanatical and regular Baptists disapproved of it.

The Russian, with more than 500,000 members, is the second largest Baptist community in the world after the United States.

Mariner Plans Another Effort To Sail Atlantic

NEW YORK (AP) — Capt. William Willis, the 72-year-old mariner who was stricken with a hernia as he attempted to cross the Atlantic alone in an 11-foot sailboat, says he is going to try again.

Willis, who flew into New York Tuesday, said he had suffered the hernia a month before he was rescued by a Coast Guard cutter about 1,000 miles east of Newfoundland.

"I was as helpless as a kitten," he said. "Sometimes I had to nail myself under canvas to prevent being thrown into the sea during storms."

His radio failed him, he said, but he finally caught the attention of a passing vessel "by waving and shouting like a madman."

Willis, who set out from New York June 22 hoping to reach Plymouth, England, arrived from Saint John, N.B., where the cutter took him, and was welcomed with a tearful embrace by his wife.

The sailor said he was still in pain, but he did not know if he would undergo surgery until he consulted with his doctor.

He did know he wasn't going to give up. "I am going to try again as soon as I recover," he said.

Theodore Rossevelt's now-famous "speak softly and carry a big stick" quote was not made, as generally believed, in a speech or public statement, but in a letter to a friend.

Funds Available, Rhodes Says For Children Classes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. James A. Rhodes gave assurances Tuesday that state funds will be available to continue summer and fall classes for 1,200 migrant children.

Migrant children's classes were to have been cut short for lack of $12,850 in Economic Opportunity Act funds. Congress has not acted to extend the migrant education program for 1966-67.

The Ohio Department of Education asked for state funds after notification three weeks ago that an anticipated appropriation from the U.S. Office of Economic Opportunity would not be available.

Instruction for 425 children in early summer programs had already been completed when notification came.

Fifteen centers in 12 counties would have been affected by lack of funds. Counties involved are Darke, Fulton, Hancock, Henry, Mercer, Ottawa, Putnam, Sandusky, Seneca, Van Wert, Williams and Wood.

Half Of Children Under 15 Have Never Been To Dentist

WASHINGTON (AP) — About half the children in this country under 15 years of age have never been to a dentist, the Children's Bureau said today.

With this finding of recent health studies in mind, the bureau has prepared a new booklet, "The Care of Your Children's Teeth," as part of an expanded program to give increased attention to good dental care for children.

The bureau said the booklet is designed to remind parents to be sure that their children begin brushing their teeth at about the age of 2. It also is suggested that a child's first visit to a dentist should be a friendly one, before an emergency arises.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Manpower subcommittee has approved a $2.05-billion authorization bill to continue the nation's antipoverty program for a third year.

The measure, as approved by the subcommittee, contained nearly $300 million more than requested by President Johnson.

Chairman Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said he hopes the full Labor Committee will be able to act on the measure later this week so it could get to the Senate floor before Labor Day. Other senaktors expressed doubt this could be done.

The measure, as sent to the full committee, includes two amendments passed on without recommendation.

One, offered by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., would add another $200 million for th Head Start program. The other, sponsored in the House by Rep. James H. Scheuer, D-N.Y., would add $75 million for the employment of subprofessional personnel in health, education and public service fields.

10 Swim To Exile Via Guantanamo Base

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Ten Cubans swam to exile via the Guantanamo Naval Base in Cuba.

"I was in the water 12 hours waiting for a chance to sneak through Fidel Castro's patrols to the base," Osmundo Frometa said Tuesday.

The companions of the 36-year-old Frometa also said they had long swims.

Frometa said, "You can see with horrible frequency in Guantanamo bay the floating bodies of people who didn't make it."

Tree Obscuring Junction Blamed For Auto Mishap

A tree obscuring vision of the junction of two Beechwood streets was blamed for a collision that damaged two autos Tuesday, police reported.

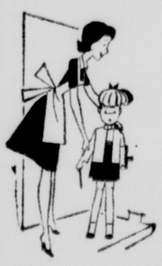

The crash at Vernia and Center Sts. involved a 1959 four-door sedan driven by Daniel Bekar, 39, of 152 Center St. and a 1964 four-door sedan operated by Mrs. Frances R. Bussard, 44, of 821 Bank St., officers said.

Bekar was driving on Center St. and turning left onto Vernia St., while Mrs. Bussard was traveling south on Vernia St. Both told Patrolman Orin C. Smith that they were unable to see oncoming traffic because of a tree at the intersection.

Tree Obscuring Junction Blamed For Auto Mishap

A tree obscuring vision of the junction of two Beechwood streets was blamed for a collision that damaged two autos Tuesday, police reported.

The crash at Vernia and Center Sts. involved a 1959 four-door sedan driven by Daniel Bekar, 39, of 152 Center St. and a 1964 four-door sedan operated by Mrs. Frances R. Bussard, 44, of 821 Bank St., officers said.

Bekar was driving on Center St. and turning left onto Vernia St., while Mrs. Bussard was traveling south on Vernia St. Both told Patrolman Orin C. Smith that they were unable to see oncoming traffic because of a tree at the intersection.

Half Of Children Under 15 Have Never Been To Dentist

WASHINGTON (AP) — About half the children in this country under 15 years of age have never been to a dentist, the Children's Bureau said today.

With this finding of recent health studies in mind, the bureau has prepared a new booklet, "The Care of Your Children's Teeth," as part of an expanded program to give increased attention to good dental care for children.

The bureau said the booklet is designed to remind parents to be sure that their children begin brushing their teeth at about the age of 2. It also is suggested that a child's first visit to a dentist should be a friendly one, before an emergency arises.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Manpower subcommittee has approved a $2.05-billion authorization bill to continue the nation's antipoverty program for a third year.

The measure, as approved by the subcommittee, contained nearly $300 million more than requested by President Johnson.

Chairman Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said he hopes the full Labor Committee will be able to act on the measure later this week so it could get to the Senate floor before Labor Day. Other senaktors expressed doubt this could be done.

The measure, as sent to the full committee, includes two amendments passed on without recommendation.

One, offered by Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., would add another $200 million for th Head Start program. The other, sponsored in the House by Rep. James H. Scheuer, D-N.Y., would add $75 million for the employment of subprofessional personnel in health, education and public service fields.

Threat Of Still More Rain

Homes Damaged, Farms Ruined By Texas Flood

By The Associated Press

Silt-laden flood waters ebbed slowly today from damaged homes and devastated farms but there was a threat of still more rain in neighboring sectors of far West Texas and southeast New Mexico.

Army helicopters brought food, drinking water and medicines Tuesday to residents forced from homes at nearly marooned Dell City, Tex., 92 miles east of El Paso.

The helicopters, from Ft. Bliss in El Paso, also made relief flights to the Carlsbad, N.M., vicinity.

Deluges estimated at 11 inches since Monday at Dell City and 8 inches in Carlsbad Caverns National Park set off the crop-destroying floods.

While the muddy waters were receding, Weather Bureau observers said there was a 50 per cent chance of thundershowers in at least part of the affected area.

At least one death apparently occurred as the Pecos River went on the rampage at Carlsbad. A search continued today for Joe Little, 45, who was washed off a National Guard truck Monday night while reporting developments for radio station KPBM.

Losses were expected to run into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Water six inches to six feet deep covered about 95 per cent of Dell City, an irrigated farming center. Most of its 950 people took shelter in public schools. Some were rescued off rooftops.

Flood evacuees at Carlsbad — about 100 families — were housed in school buildings.

Helicopters went into action after an 85-foot washout on U.S. 61-80 stalled a 21-truck Army convoy 54 miles east of El Paso.

One of the trucks finally made it into Dell City late Tuesday night. There was hope others could get through today.

Water gushing off the Guadalupe and Hueco mountains poured down normally dry arroyos and across salt flats to inflict staggering crop losses in the Dell City vicinity.

Thousands of acres were submerged, including all the croplands from Dell City to the town of Salt Flat, 13 miles south. In addition to destroying crops, the flooding left deep deposits of mud polluted with alkali deposits which could trouble farmers for months.

Farmers normally harvest cotton from about 2,500 acres around Dell City, irrigating from wells. It also is a vegetable center, producing principally tomatoes and bell peppers at this season.

Alaska's population is estimated at 260,000, including military personnel stationed there.

Mental Health Discussed At Chester Club

Mrs. Audrey Littman of Weirton, vice president of the Hancock-Brooke County Mental Health Society, discussed "Mental Health" at the meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night in City Hall Auditorium.

Twenty-two attended.

Invocation was given by the Rev. Harvey Schondelmayer. Albert Kell presided.

Club members will hold a golf tournament Saturday afternoon beginning at 1 at the Highland Country Club.

The next meeting will be Tuesday at 5:10 p.m. rather than 6:10 p.m., with members playing a round of golf at the Highland course afterward.

12 Arraigned, Jailed In Attack On Girl

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Twelve members of a motorcycle group were arraigned on morals charges and assault and battery charges Tuesday in Allegheny County criminal court.

The 12 were arrested Aug. 11 in an attack on an 18-year-old girl.

They were lodged in the county jail in default of $10,000 bond apiece.

Board Ends Booster Club's Beaver Local Dinner Events

Refusal of the Beaver Local School District Board of Education to permit the Boosters Club to sponsor large dinners at the schools to raise funds was explained at a meeting of the club Tuesday night.

Michael Klembara, president of the Boosters Club and head of a committee which met with the board last week, reported the board feels the preparation for the dinners involved too much time of students and school officials.

The club had sought board approval of the use of the school Oct. 29 for a Democratic dinner and Oct. 11 for a Republican dinner, both major fund sources of the club.

It was reported the football program books are completed except for the patron page and for photographing the team, coaches and others. The photographs are to be taken Saturday afternoon at 1 at the high school.

Theodore Taylor, high school principal, reviewed improvements being completed at the football field. Volunteers are needed to erect a fence at the home section of the bleachers to restrict spectator use of the playing area, he said.

Discussion was held on formation of a junior booster club and on lifetime memberships to be awarded those who have aided the club. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Downard are in charge of the lifetime membership program.

The next meeting will be Sept. 13 when films of the first home game will be screened. Season tickets for the six home games are now on sale at the high school for $7.50.

Rehearsal Slated By Serbian Choir

The Junior Choir of the Midland St. George Serbian Orthodox Church will rehearse Thursday at 8 p.m., the Very Rev. Milorad Dobrota has announced.

Confession will be held Sunday from 8:30 to 9 a.m., with Sunday School classes meeting at 9:15 a.m. and Divine Liturgy at 9:30 a.m. when the Assumption of the Virgin Mary will be commemorated.

Fr. Dobrota officiated at the baptism of Lori Christine Vujakovich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vujakovich of Hillcrest Manor, on Aug. 14. Larry Meriage of Midland is the godfather.

On Sunday, Fr. Dobrota baptized Nick and Sam Hayden, infant twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hayden of Industry. The godfather is Peter Matijevich of Burgettstown.

Ohio Air Service To Be Expanded By Lake Central

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lake Central Airlines would expand its service in Ohio under an application now pending before the Civil Aeronautics Board.

The carrier proposed Tuesday to provide direct service between Toronto, Canada, and Erie, Pa., and to points beyond, including Pittsburgh, Youngstown, Akron-Canton, Columbus, and Cincinnati.

Lake Central also would offer service between Toronto and Detroit and points beyond, including Toledo, Dayton, Cincinnati, and Indianapolis.

CAB examiner Herbert K. Bryan recommended the board approve Lake Central's Toronto-Detroit application.

However, Bryan recommended that Allegheny Airlines be granted authority to provide additional service between Toronto and Erie.

He said Allegheny's Toronto-Erie service would benefit 68,000 users a year compared to an estimated 52,700 for Lake Central.

Flood evacuees at Carlsbad — about 100 families — were housed in school buildings.

Helicopters went into action after an 85-foot washout on U.S. 61-80 stalled a 21-truck Army convoy 54 miles east of El Paso.

One of the trucks finally made it into Dell City late Tuesday night. There was hope others could get through today.

Water gushing off the Guadalupe and Hueco mountains poured down normally dry arroyos and across salt flats to inflict staggering crop losses in the Dell City vicinity.

Thousands of acres were submerged, including all the croplands from Dell City to the town of Salt Flat, 13 miles south. In addition to destroying crops, the flooding left deep deposits of mud polluted with alkali deposits which could trouble farmers for months.

Farmers normally harvest cotton from about 2,500 acres around Dell City, irrigating from wells. It also is a vegetable center, producing principally tomatoes and bell peppers at this season.

Alaska's population is estimated at 260,000, including military personnel stationed there.

Mental Health Discussed At Chester Club

Mrs. Audrey Littman of Weirton, vice president of the Hancock-Brooke County Mental Health Society, discussed "Mental Health" at the meeting of the Chester Kiwanis Club Tuesday night in City Hall Auditorium.

Twenty-two attended.

Invocation was given by the Rev. Harvey Schondelmayer. Albert Kell presided.

Club members will hold a golf tournament Saturday afternoon beginning at 1 at the Highland Country Club.

The next meeting will be Tuesday at 5:10 p.m. rather than 6:10 p.m., with members playing a round of golf at the Highland course afterward.

12 Arraigned, Jailed In Attack On Girl

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Twelve members of a motorcycle group were arraigned on morals charges and assault and battery charges Tuesday in Allegheny County criminal court.

The 12 were arrested Aug. 11 in an attack on an 18-year-old girl.

They were lodged in the county jail in default of $10,000 bond apiece.

Board Ends Booster Club's Beaver Local Dinner Events

Refusal of the Beaver Local School District Board of Education to permit the Boosters Club to sponsor large dinners at the schools to raise funds was explained at a meeting of the club Tuesday night.

Michael Klembara, president of the Boosters Club and head of a committee which met with the board last week, reported the board feels the preparation for the dinners involved too much time of students and school officials.

The club had sought board approval of the use of the school Oct. 29 for a Democratic dinner and Oct. 11 for a Republican dinner, both major fund sources of the club.

It was reported the football program books are completed except for the patron page and for photographing the team, coaches and others. The photographs are to be taken Saturday afternoon at 1 at the high school.

Theodore Taylor, high school principal, reviewed improvements being completed at the football field. Volunteers are needed to erect a fence at the home section of the bleachers to restrict spectator use of the playing area, he said.

Discussion was held on formation of a junior booster club and on lifetime memberships to be awarded those who have aided the club. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Downard are in charge of the lifetime membership program.

The next meeting will be Sept. 13 when films of the first home game will be screened. Season tickets for the six home games are now on sale at the high school for $7.50.

Rehearsal Slated By Serbian Choir

The Junior Choir of the Midland St. George Serbian Orthodox Church will rehearse Thursday at 8 p.m., the Very Rev. Milorad Dobrota has announced.

Confession will be held Sunday from 8:30 to 9 a.m., with Sunday School classes meeting at 9:15 a.m. and Divine Liturgy at 9:30 a.m. when the Assumption of the Virgin Mary will be commemorated.

Fr. Dobrota officiated at the baptism of Lori Christine Vujakovich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Vujakovich of Hillcrest Manor, on Aug. 14. Larry Meriage of Midland is the godfather.

On Sunday, Fr. Dobrota baptized Nick and Sam Hayden, infant twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hayden of Industry. The godfather is Peter Matijevich of Burgettstown.

The building which houses the Pan American Union in Washington, D. C., was donated by Andrew Carnegie in 1910.

Ohio Air Service To Be Expanded By Lake Central

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lake Central Airlines would expand its service in Ohio under an application now pending before the Civil Aeronautics Board.

The carrier proposed Tuesday to provide direct service between Toronto, Canada, and Erie, Pa., and to points beyond, including Pittsburgh, Youngstown, Akron-Canton, Columbus, and Cincinnati.

Lake Central also would offer service between Toronto and Detroit and points beyond, including Toledo, Dayton, Cincinnati, and Indianapolis.

CAB examiner Herbert K. Bryan recommended the board approve Lake Central's Toronto-Detroit application.

However, Bryan recommended that Allegheny Airlines be granted authority to provide additional service between Toronto and Erie.

He said Allegheny's Toronto-Erie service would benefit 68,000 users a year compared to an estimated 52,700 for Lake Central.

The defendant waived extradition Monday afternoon before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard in Common Pleas Court.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: A man sold my husband two cemetery plots complete with a marker for our names. The salesman told my husband he could get a special price on some fancy stone cut work if my husband wanted our names put on now. Over my objections my husband told the man to go ahead.

We now own two cemetery lots and a double headstone with our names on it. I hate the idea that our graves are waiting for us. Instead of the "peace of mind" which the salesman promised, it is making me sick. What do you suggest?— NOT READY YET.

Dear Not Ready: I checked around, hoping I could tell you it is illegal to engrave the names of living people on headstones. Sorry but it's not against the law.

It is creepy, however, and I do hope your husband will agree to remove the headstone and keep it in somebody's garage or tool shed.

Blackmail

Dear Ann: We are seven teenage girls who did a real dumb thing and now we need some advice—and fast.

Last night we were discussing sex and decided to make it a frank "tell-all" session. Well, all of us talked freely. I'm sure some of the girls told more than actually happened because they didn't want to look like goody-goodies.

I'm one who made up some things. I'm considered sophisticated and I didn't want to let them down.

After about an hour of "true" confessions my brother walked in with his tape recorder. He wants $25 within three weeks from each one of us or he plays the tapes for his friends and various parents.

It would be worth $25 to me to be free of the worry. I would die if my stories got out. The other girls feel as I do. Rush your advice, please.—TALKED TOO MUCH.

Dear Talked: People who stand still for blackmail are never free. If your brother would pull such a stunt, he also could make reproductions of the tape, take the money and blackmail you again with the reproductions in three months.

Tell him "no sale" and to go ahead and play the tapes on the Voice of America if he can swing it.

Flapping Lip

Dear Ann: My husband has had some severe emotional problems for a long time. Recently his physician suggested psychiatric help. I'm happy to say he took the advice and is now in therapy.

My husband is self-conscious about seeing a psychiatrist and has not told anyone. I have kept his secret also—until a couple of weeks ago. His mother came to visit us and I mentioned it to her, in the strictest of confidence. She promised not to let on that she knew.

This morning we received a letter from her, our first since she returned home. The first part of the letter was very pleasant. Then she wrote: "Are you still going to a psychiatrist, son? I don't think you need one. Why don't you just snap out of it?"

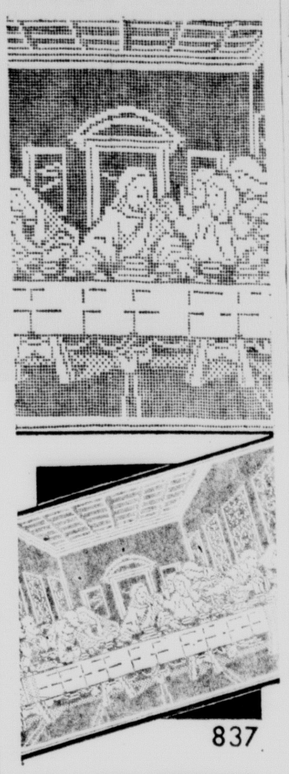

My husband is furious with me. It appears that my mother-in-law is (a) not on my side and (b) is looking to make trouble. Comment please.—A.A.W.

Dear A.A.W.: You may be right about (a) and (b) and now may I add (c)? That loose lip of yours is what started all the trouble. I hope you've learned your lesson.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Francis X. Bushman, 83, Famed Movie Actor, Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Francis X. Bushman was a man who earned millions as "King of the Movies," lost them — and his fans — after his family life was discovered, and still was able to say the fun he had was worth every penny.

He was a man who traveled in a gold-plated automobile, let 300 Great Danes romp on a 480-acre estate, then moved in leaner years to a stucco house in the suburbs.

He was a man who once needed 18 secretaries to answer his fan mail, then needed radio work to support himself.

Bushman did Tuesday at 83 as he was pouring a cup of morning coffee. The Los Angeles County coroner's office, in an autopsy report, attributed his death to a "rupture of the heart."

"His passing marks the fall of one of the landmarks of Hollywood history," said Charlton Heston, president of the Screen Actors Guild. Heston starred in the remake of "Ben-Hur," a film Bushman made in 1925.

Bushman's movie career began in Chicago in 1911. It lasted, off and on, until his death.

"That he died with a movie role was the beautiful part of his passing," said his widow, Iva, 63. He was to have appeared in his first Western.

He made more than 400 movies, more than any other actor, living or dead.

Bushman's biographers said he earned between $6 million and $10 million at the height of his fame as a rugged leading man. Billboards proclaimed his profile the "handsomest face in the world."

A national poll elected him "King of the Movies" in an era when Charlie Chaplin, William S. Hart and Douglas Fairbanks Sr. were established stars.

He married four times. Leaving his first wife nearly ended his career in 1918.

His contract stipulated that his marriage be kept secret. When he sued for divorce to marry his leading lady, Beverly Bayne, his fans learned that their romantic idol had five children — and they deserted him by millions for a newcomer named Rudolph Valentino.

Between 1932 and the late '40s he made more than 5,000 radio broadcasts. His generosity — and the 1929 stock market crash — had hurt him, and he needed the money.

He returned to movies in 1942 and broke into television in the '50s.

Silver-haired and still handsome, he rewon some of his early fans when he served on the Mayor's Committee for the Affairs of the Aging.

Until 1900, tropical America produced more than 80 percent of the world's cacao. But in 25 years, the center of production had shifted to West Africa.

Nearly 1,500,000 people in the United States, or one out of every fifty, work in hospitals. This makes hospitals the fourth largest employer in the country.

Francis X. Bushman, 83, Famed Movie Actor, Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Francis X. Bushman was a man who earned millions as "King of the Movies," lost them — and his fans — after his family life was discovered, and still was able to say the fun he had was worth every penny.

He was a man who traveled in a gold-plated automobile, let 300 Great Danes romp on a 480-acre estate, then moved in leaner years to a stucco house in the suburbs.

He was a man who once needed 18 secretaries to answer his fan mail, then needed radio work to support himself.

Bushman did Tuesday at 83 as he was pouring a cup of morning coffee. The Los Angeles County coroner's office, in an autopsy report, attributed his death to a "rupture of the heart."

"His passing marks the fall of one of the landmarks of Hollywood history," said Charlton Heston, president of the Screen Actors Guild. Heston starred in the remake of "Ben-Hur," a film Bushman made in 1925.

Bushman's movie career began in Chicago in 1911. It lasted, off and on, until his death.

"That he died with a movie role was the beautiful part of his passing," said his widow, Iva, 63. He was to have appeared in his first Western.

He made more than 400 movies, more than any other actor, living or dead.

Bushman's biographers said he earned between $6 million and $10 million at the height of his fame as a rugged leading man. Billboards proclaimed his profile the "handsomest face in the world."

A national poll elected him "King of the Movies" in an era when Charlie Chaplin, William S. Hart and Douglas Fairbanks Sr. were established stars.

His contract stipulated that his marriage be kept secret. When he sued for divorce to marry his leading lady, Beverly Bayne, his fans learned that their romantic idol had five children — and they deserted him by millions for a newcomer named Rudolph Valentino.

Between 1932 and the late '40s he made more than 5,000 radio broadcasts. His generosity — and the 1929 stock market crash — had hurt him, and he needed the money.

He returned to movies in 1942 and broke into television in the '50s.

Silver-haired and still handsome, he rewon some of his early fans when he served on the Mayor's Committee for the Affairs of the Aging.

Until 1900, tropical America produced more than 80 percent of the world's cacao. But in 25 years, the center of production had shifted to West Africa.

TV Actors Campaign For Rating Votes

A TV star must hit the campaign trail today much the same as a politician. And the TV star is looking for votes, too, the kind which are recorded on those Neilsen Audimeters by the 1,100 or fewer families whose viewing of TV comprises all of the voting in this crazy election.

Hal Humphrey

For the past few weeks network promotion departments have been touring the stars of new series around to all the "Nielsen cities," having them guest on radio and TV programs and make other public appearances. There are 30 so-called Nielsen cities where a concentrated metropolitan rating is taken in addition to what Nielsen calls his "national rating."

-:-

SINCE it hardly would pay to junket into every boondock hamlet in which Nielsen has scattered the remainder of his 1,100 meters, the network stars do their stumping in these 30 cities with the hope that some of the Nielsen families will be impressed and-or sufficiently intrigued by their actual presence in the home town to want to watch them when their new series hits the air.

This kind of campaigning also is done by stars who aren't even on TV regularly. Steve Lawrence, who with wife Eydie Gorme has been concert touring the country, says he picks Nielsen cities whenever he can.

"We were in Atlanta not long ago and besides our concert we visited the disc jockeys and TV stations, spending an extra day there. Working in those cities, I believe, is that important," says the young singer.

STEVE'S knowledge of the TV business was widened considerably early last season after his own CBS show was canceled at the end of 13 weeks.

"When we got to Columbus, Ohio, on our tour this year, I discovered my TV show wasn't seen 'live' there, but at 6 o'clock on Saturdays, and this is a Nielsen city. But we also found several Nielsen cities where my show never was seen," adds Steve, disgustedly.

In addition to falling prey to the Nielsen game, Steve had too many overseers who knew exactly what kind of show he should put on to be a hit and which guest stars. Sammy Davis Jr. experienced the same kind of kibitizing at NBC and wound up in the same outgoing chute.

"I THINK my last four shows were fairly good, because I finally did what I wanted to do. By then, of course, it was too late. I got the word after the seventh show that we were through," says Steve, apparently still perplexed over TV's machinations.

He was even more shocked to hear that winning over the Nielsen families is only half the battle now.

TV's button pushers also depend on a so - called random sampling of audience to decide for them which star should be used in a series. Before a pilot film for a proposed TV series is okayed by a network, it is run off in front of 200 or 300 of the "public" who sit in a theater twirling dials and filling out forms describing their supposed reactions to what they're seeing.

REX POLIER, TV editor of the Philadelphia Bulletin, ran into an actor who found out first from his dentist that he was ticketed to get the lead role in a series.

"I was at the theater and saw your pilot," said the dentist to the actor, "and we all thought you were right for the part. I'm sure you're all set."

The actor naturally was relieved, especially over the fact he always had been prompt about paying his dentist bill.

Quite a few actors haven't been so fortunate this season and received such low grades from such audiences that they were replaced and the pilot films reshot.

"Migosh!" cried Steve Lawrence. "What if they had taken Rembrandt's paintings and tested them?"

He didn't answer his own question, because he was too busy with his agents—studying the route to the next Nielsen city.

Son Cites His Father In $1 Million Suit

CLEVELAND (AP)—A Chesterland man who says he injured his back and became paralyzed two years ago when he went off a boat into shallow Lake Erie water is suing his father for $1 million in damages.

The victim, Dennis Rusnak, 25, filed the suit in common pleas court, charging that his father, Walter, 49, left a soapy rag on the deck of his cabin cruiser and caused him to slip and fall into the five-foot depth.

According to his petition filed Aug. 4, the younger Rusnak said he suffered spinal injuries and other back damage.

Although it is against the law in New York State to drive an uninsured automobile, more than 4,000 such cars were involved in accidents last year, indicating that many times that number of autos are being driven illegally.

Beachcombers Are Alerted For 'Flying Saucers'

CLEVELAND (AP)— Beachcombers along the shores of Lake Erie have been alerted to be on the lookout for flying saucers—little yellow ones, that is ,used for testing currents in the lake.

Persons will be paid 50 cents for each one found. The city launched 100 of the plastic saucers, which measure six inches in diameter and have long red tails.

Walter E. Gerdel, commissioner of water pollution control, said the saucers are designed to drift to the bottom of the lake and be moved by its currents.

Gerdel said knowing where the saucers wash ashore will help the sewage department determine where to release effluents from sewage treatment plants. He said effluents would be released into stronger currents so that there would be greater dilution.

Dear Heloise: Wallpaper on the upper part of my kitchen was always getting soiled around the stove, while paper in the rest of the room would still be clean.

This time when I papered my kitchen, I covered the wallpaper around the stove with clear adhesive-backed plastic.

Now the wallpaper stays clean and I just wipe dirt and grease off the plastic with a soapy rag or sponge.

This is also very good around door knobs and light switches as the clear plastic can be wiped clean just like glass.

DEAR HELOISE: I have a good idea to get more wear from girls' shorts.

When my granddaughter had some that wore out in the rear end I got two colors of iron-on patches and cut them in different shapes — stars, moons and oblong, and ironed them on overy worn spots. These make darling "Raggedy Ann" shorts.

I cut her name out of a different color and ironed it on the colored patches.

You can use your own ideas but my granddaughter's shorts looked real cute.

DEAR MRS. MORRIS: There are so many types and makes of straw hats that I hesitate to suggest a cleaning method that would apply to all of them.

Yet, I'm sure that many of our readers have cleaned their straw hats to extend their usefulness.

So . . . if any of you sweet readers will write to us in care of this paper, and let us know how you clean yours, we sure will be grateful.

DEAR HELOISE: Servicemen are often on the move and their relatives and friends are always having to write their new address in their book.

To avoid a mass of crossed out addresses in my address book and a messy appearance, I tape his current address over the old one.

When he moves, I write his new address on masking tape, rip off the old tape and replace it with the new address.

Three Bodies Hunted After Indiana Blast

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (AP) — Giant cranes clawed at the rubble of a wire factory's executive building today in search of three bodies believed buried by a massive explosion.

Two bodies were removed after the blast Tuesday. Officails of the Phelps-Dodge Copper Products Corp. said they were certain the death toll would not exceed five.

Unofficial estimates of the loss were more than $5 million.

Two persons aiding in rescue operations were stricken with fatal heart attacks.

Eighteen persons were injured, three of them critically. Most of the building's 90 employes had left for lunch shortly before the explosion tore into the midsection of the two-story structure.

Earl Smith, 45, manager of the firm's organic research laboratory was believed climbing the stairs to attend an executive luncheon when the explosion occurred. He was presumed dead.

Eight other executives scheduled to attend the luncheon had not gathered in the upstairs dining room.

Some employes had complained in the morning of a gas odor, and two women became nauseated, authorities reported.

Harley Jensen, division manager for Northern Indiana Public Service Co., said the utility had received no complaints of leaking gas at the plant.

First Try At Water Skiing Fatal To Boy

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — His first try at water skiing ended in death Tuesday for David Ray Poole, 16, of Stoutsville, Fairfield County, Ohio.

The youngster, vacationing with his family and relatives at nearby Ocean View, fell off the skis 600 yards from shore and disappeared before the boat which had been towing him could return to pick him up.

Lorain County Coroner Paul J. Kopsch said Avery, 50, died of gunshot wounds in the chest.

2nd Stage Of Saturn May Be Used

By HOWARD BENEDICT
AP Aerospace Writer

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — When a Saturn 1 rocket flings a satellite into orbit, its second stage enters a separate orbit and circles the earth like a giant empty house trailer.

Why not, somebody asked, make use of this hardware in some way?

That's what the National Aeronautics and Space Administration hopes to do. The agency's Marshall Space Flight Center has begun negotiating a contract to convert a Saturn 1 second stage into a manned space station.

The contract, with McDonnell Aircraft Corp. of St. Louis, Mo., is expected to run about $9 million.

McDonnell is to build an airlock that will connect a three-man Apollo spacecraft to the hydrogen fuel tank in the second stage and is to develop life-support systems to make the tank habitable.

The second stage, which uses liquid hydrogen and liquid oxygen for propulsion, is 58 feet long and weighs 23,000 pounds empty. Much of the length is taken up by the engine. But the hydrogen tank measures 20 feet by 21.7 feet — plenty of room for three astronauts to set up housekeeping.

The airlock will be about 15 feet long and 5 ½ feet in diameter. It will be attached to the top of the second stage and ride in an adapter section between the rocket and the Apollo spacecraft.

Once in orbit, the three Apollo crewmen will separate their ship from the rocket, turn it around and link up with a docking apparatus at one end of the airlock.

The airlock will be a chamber with airtight doors like manhole covers at each end. The astronauts will open one door and crawl into the chamber, closing the cover behind them. Then they open the other end and enter the hydrogen tank. This eliminates the need to depressurize the spacecraft and the tank each time a man enters or leaves.

There also will be an additional hatch on the side of the airlock to permit an astronaut to take a space walk without depressurizing either of the cabins.

Before entering the tank, the astronauts will make certain any leftover hydrogen is vented overboard and they will activate equipment to pressurize it. They also will electrically connect the Apollo craft's life support system to the fuel tank.

Equipment such as work tables, beds and experiments will be packed in containers attached to the walls of the tank.

NASA officials hope to try out this concept in 1968 keeping the three astronauts in the tank for up to 30 days.

By then, the combination of the Saturn 1 and the Apollo spacecraft will be throughly checked. A test flight is scheduled from Cape Kennedy Thursday that may pave the way for the first three-man Apollo earth-orbit flight later this year. The advanced Saturn 5 rocket is to boost an Apollo ship toward the moon in 1968 or 1969.

Fireman 'Gums Up' Leaky Tank Of Car

LEWISTON, Idaho (AP) — Fireman Robert W. Brock got a call Tuesday night. Gasoline was leaking from the tank of a car.

Brock responded, couldn't find the owner, slapped his chewing gum over the hole in the gasoline tank and returned to the station house.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1814, President James Madison and his cabinet fled Washington as British troops marched on the capital.

On this date:

In 1867, Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore was incorporated.

In 1891, Thomas Edison applied for a patent on a camera to make moving pictures.

In 1941, Britain's Prime Minister Winston Churchill pledged his country would aid the United States in the event of war with Japan.

Five years ago—As the Berlin crisis intensified, the White House issued a solemn warning to the Soviet Union that any interference by the Soviet government or the Communist East German regime with free access to West Berlin would be an aggressive act.

One year ago—Republicans in the House of Representatives issued a paper criticizing President Johnson's Viet Nam policy.

Junior Editors Quiz on CASEY JONES

QUESTION: Was there a real Casey Jones?

★ ★ ★

ANSWER: Most of us have heard the rollicking old song Casey Jones, in which one can almost hear the thundering of the express train as it races toward disaster. One may think of Casey as a kind of folk hero, yet Casey was actually a real railroad engineer who gave his life trying to save his train. "Casey," whose real name was John Luther Jones, had pulled his train into Memphis, Tenn., April 29, 1900. Since the engineer who ran the southbound train was ill, Casey volunteered to take his place. Early in the morning, as his train was racing along, Casey suddenly saw the rear end of a freight train protruding on to the main track from a siding. It had been moved there by mistake. Casey shut down his throttle and jammed on his air brakes—but it was too late. The momentum of the racing train carried it into the freight with a terrific crash. In the collision, Casey lost his life. But when his body was found it was discovered that he still had both hands on the controls. His courage in hanging on instead of jumping had undoubtedly saved many lives. Casey became a national hero.

Despite Ribicoff's Charge

Mayor Of Los Angeles Confident Of Federal Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mayor Samuel W. Yorty was reported confident today Los Anglees could win a share in a potentially vast federal aid proposal, despite Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff's charge that the city government is ill-equipped for its tasks.

That word came from Robert Goe, executive assistant to the mayor. "We can work it out," he said.

Yorty was not available for comment.

The program is President Johnson's Demonstration Cities plan, approved in a reduced form by the Senate but awaiting House action. With a first-installment price tag of $900 million, it is designed to rebuild — socially, economically and physically — entire slum sections of some cities.

Goe, who also is director of the Los Angeles Office of Community Development, told a reporter the city has men at work now on a proposal for Demonstration Cities aid.

He said Yorty believes that despite problems of government jurisdiction, which produced stormy debate and harsh criticism at a Senate hearing Tuesday, Los Angeles could set up an effective demonstration program.

"Obviously we're interested," he said.

The Democratic mayor engaged in hot exchanges with two Democratic senators — Ribicoff of Connecticut and Robert F. Kennedy of New York — during Tuesday's session. Ribicoff is chairman of the Senate Government Operations subcommittee which is looking into city problems and the federal role in urban affairs.

At one point, Ribicoff told Yorty: "Los Angeles brags all over the country about how big and rich you are, what you stand for. I would say that the City of Los Angeles right now from what you've said doesn't stand for a damn thing."

Yorty replied: "We're a great city."

At another point, Kennedy said while Yorty might not have responsibility for some things in his city "you are the mayor and it seems to me we could expect some leadership from you."

Yorty retorted, "I don't need any lectures from you."

Ribicoff told Yorty he had waived to county, regional or state agencies responsibility for Los Angeles programs dealing with welfare, transportation, education, health and housing. Those would be key elements of a Demonstration Cities project.

At the hearing, Yorty assented. But Goe said the mayor is in charge of urban redevelopment and the city is pushing ahead in that field.
